AEROTURBINE SIGNS TEN-YEAR CRJ900 MATERIAL SUPPORT AGREEMENT WITH PLUNA AIRLINES

MIAMI — February 2, 2012 — AeroTurbine Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of International Lease Finance Corporation (ILFC), announced today that it has entered into an exclusive ten-year Supply Chain Agreement supporting Pluna Airlines' fleet of CRJ900 aircraft.

This agreement designates AeroTurbine to be responsible for providing material support for an initial 13 CRJ900 aircraft. AeroTurbine's comprehensive support includes providing onsite aircraft parts inventory, pool stock access in the United States, and complete repair vendor management.

AeroTurbine President and CEO Michael King commented, "We are very proud to have been selected by Pluna to support 100% of the material requirements for their growing fleet of CRJ900 aircraft over the next ten years. This flying-hour agreement is a proven example of the value-based services, which AeroTurbine offers to its customers."

"We conducted a very thorough competitive analysis and concluded that AeroTurbine's solution best matched our operational and financial objectives. Finding the right supply chain partner is very important and we are confident in our choice of AeroTurbine," said Pluna Airlines Vice President of Operations, Martin Harrison.
