

Stephen J. Wuori

President, Liquids Pipelines & Major Projects

Steve Wuori, President, Liquids Pipelines and Major Projects, is responsible for all crude oil and liquids pipeline businesses in North America, and for the Major Projects unit at Enbridge, which manages the engineering, procurement and construction of growth projects across the company.

Mr. Wuori has over 32 years of experience with Enbridge, including over 20 years in the liquids pipelines business. He served as President of Enbridge Pipelines Inc. and Enbridge Energy Partners, L.P. from 1997 to 2000, Group Vice President, Corporate Planning and Development from 2001 to 2003, Group Vice President and Chief Financial Officer from 2003 to 2006, as Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Development from 2006 to 2008, and President of Liquids Pipelines until January 2012 at which time the Major Projects business unit was added to his portfolio.