Senior Appointments at ANZ Australia

ANZ today announced three senior appointments reporting to CEO Australia, Philip Chronican.

- Matthew Boss has been appointed Managing Director Products & Marketing. Matthew joins ANZ from Bank of America based in North Carolina where he has held senior retail banking roles across finance, product management and consumer segments. He will commence with ANZ at the end of October 2012.
- Glenn Haslam has been appointed General Manager Transformation. In this new role Glenn will be responsible for bringing together Australia's transformation priorities to simplify its business, drive productivity improvements and make it easier for customers to bank with ANZ. Glenn is currently acting Managing Director, Product & Marketing.
- Jeremy Dean has been appointed General Manager Australia Operations. Jeremy is currently General Manager Business Execution for Corporate and Commercial Australia having joined ANZ three years ago.

Commenting on the appointments, ANZ CEO Australia, Philip Chronican said: "These appointments strengthen our Australian leadership team and provide focus on our plans to reshape the way we meet the changing needs of our consumer and business customers."
