

ICF INTERNATIONAL, INC.
GOVERNANCE AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE CHARTER

Amended Effective September 15, 2017

A. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Governance and Nominating Committee (the “Committee”) is to assist the Board of Directors (the “Board”) in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities to ICF International, Inc. (the “Company”), and its stockholders, and the investment community by:

- evaluating and recommending to the Board qualified candidates for election or appointment to the Board;
- reviewing the independence of Board members and candidates for the Board;
- managing the annual Board self-assessment process; and
- monitoring and overseeing matters of corporate governance.

In addition, the Committee is authorized to undertake the specific duties and responsibilities listed below and the authority to undertake such other specific duties as the Board from time to time may prescribe. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee believes that the policies and procedures delineated in this Charter should remain flexible, in order to react best to changing business and regulatory requirements.

B. MEMBERSHIP

The members of the Committee and its Chair shall be appointed by the Board and may be removed at any time with or without cause only by the Board. The Committee will have a minimum of three members. Except as otherwise permitted under NASDAQ rules, the Committee shall be composed entirely of independent directors, determined in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and applicable NASDAQ criteria. Each Committee member shall also satisfy the experience requirements of NASDAQ. The Committee chair shall, in consultation with other Committee members and management, set the agenda for and preside at the meetings of the Committee.

C. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least three times per year and report directly to the full Board. The Committee may meet periodically in executive session to discuss matters it determines require private Committee attention. A majority of the members of the Committee shall be a quorum to transact business. The Committee shall maintain minutes of each meeting and shall report on matters considered at Committee meetings to the Board at its next regularly scheduled Board meeting.

D. LINES OF COMMUNICATION

The Committee shall encourage regular and open communications among the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, the Lead Director, the committee chairs and other Board members. The Committee also shall encourage regular and open communications between members of senior management and the Board of Directors.

E. SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

Pursuant to the Committee's purpose and in furtherance of the foregoing responsibilities, the Committee shall have the following specific duties and responsibilities:

Regarding Nominations to the Board of Directors

1. Annually present to the Board a list of individuals recommended for nomination for election to the Board at the annual meeting of stockholders. Such recommendations will include the Committee's assessment of each nominee's independence consistent with the Corporate Governance Guidelines and applicable requirements.
 - a. Assist in identifying, interviewing and recruiting candidates for the Board.
 - b. In recommending or nominating candidates to serve on the Board, the Committee shall take into consideration such factors as it deems appropriate. These factors may include skills, expertise, diversity, strength of character, judgment and relevant industry background, experience with businesses and other organizations of comparable size, the interplay of the candidate's experience with the familiarity and background of other Board members, and the extent to which the candidate would be a desirable addition to the Board and any committees of the Board.
 - c. Before recommending an incumbent, replacement or additional director, evaluate his or her qualifications, including capability, availability to serve, conflicts of interest, as applicable, an incumbent's desire to continue service on the Board and other factors including those identified in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines.
2. The Committee will seek input on the candidates from the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer and, if one is appointed, the Lead Director.
3. Subject to the requirements of the Company's Bylaws, the Committee shall adopt procedures for receipt of nominations from outside sources, including procedures for responding to such outside sources as to the outcome of nominations.
 - a. Subject to such requirements, review and consider stockholder recommended candidates for nomination to the Board.
4. Subject to the Company's Bylaws, recommend to the Board the number of directors that shall constitute the whole Board.

Regarding Director Independence

5. Review the factors included in the Corporate Governance Guidelines and other requirements applicable to determining a director's independence and recommend to the Board whether a director meets the independence standards.
6. Review and consider for approval the following matters that may call into question the qualification of any director to serve as an independent director:
 - a. Interested party contracts and business arrangements of the types and at the materiality level set from time to time by the Committee; and
 - b. Charitable contributions by the Company to organizations with which a director is affiliated.

Regarding Corporate Governance

7. Annually review the composition of each committee (including this Committee) and present recommendations for committee chairs and membership to the Board as needed, taking into consideration rotation of chairs or membership as appropriate.
8. Annually review the Lead Director position and recommend to the Board the appointment of the Lead Director, consistent with the Corporate Governance Guidelines.
9. Periodically review the practice of combining the positions of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and advise the other independent members of the Board concerning any recommended changes, consistent with the Corporate Governance Guidelines.
10. Oversee an annual self-assessment of the Board and the committees to determine whether the Board and the committees are functioning effectively. The Committee shall determine the nature of the assessment, supervise the conduct of the assessment and prepare a summary of the self-assessment, to be discussed with the Board and each committee.
11. From time to time, engage an independent consultant for the Committee to prepare a report comparing the Company's director compensation with that of directors of comparable companies.
 - a. Recommend any changes to Board compensation, taking into consideration the Corporate Governance Guidelines, to the Board for approval.
12. Arrange for the orientation of new members of the Board, consistent with the Corporate Governance Guidelines, and encourage all directors to attend continuing education programs.
13. Annually review and recommend, as appropriate, changes to this charter.
 - a. Along with each committee, annually review and reassess the adequacy of each charter and recommend any changes to the Board for approval as appropriate.
14. Review the Corporate Governance Guidelines on a periodic basis and recommend any changes thereto to the Board for approval.
15. Periodically review the Company's Bylaws and, to the extent deemed appropriate, recommend amendments thereto that are consistent with applicable law.
16. Consider and advise the Board on other matters relating to the affairs or governance of the Board.
17. Review and provide guidance regarding the framework for the Board's oversight and involvement in shareholder engagement.

Other Responsibilities

18. Consider and make recommendations to the Board on matters relating to the succession of the Chief Executive Officer and other senior management.
19. Review and evaluate the Company's director and officer insurance coverage and advise the Board on the scope and cost of such coverage.
20. Perform such additional duties or responsibilities as the Board may determine from time to time.

F. RESOURCES AND AUTHORITY

The Committee shall have the resources and authority to discharge its responsibilities, including the authority, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to retain independent advisors including external search firms, for the Committee. The Company shall provide funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of compensation to any independent advisors or administrative support employed by the Committee.
