ANNOUNCEMENT EXPECTED LOSS IN 2012 ANNUAL RESULTS OF NANJING IRON & STEEL

On 29 January 2013, Nanjing Iron & Steel Co., Ltd. (“Nanjing Iron & Steel”), a subsidiary of Fosun International Limited (the “Company”) and whose A shares are listed and traded on the Shanghai Stock Exchange (Stock Code: 600282), issued an announcement in relation to expected loss in results for the year of 2012 (the “Announcement”).

The board of the directors of the Company would like to draw the attention of its shareholders and the public investors to the following information as set out in the Announcement:

I. Estimated Results of Nanjing Iron & Steel

1. Period of estimated results: 1 January 2012 to 31 December 2012.

2. Estimated results: Based on the preliminary estimation, it is estimated that there is a loss in the operating results of Nanjing Iron & Steel for the year of 2012. The net loss attributable to the shareholders of Nanjing Iron & Steel is approximately RMB580 million for the year of 2012. Detailed and exact financial data shall be subject to the 2012 annual report (audited) issued by Nanjing Iron & Steel.

II. Results of Nanjing Iron & Steel for the Same Period of Last Year

1. Net profit attributable to shareholders of Nanjing Iron & Steel: RMB325.3508 million
2. Earnings per share: RMB0.084

III. Main Reasons for the Expected Loss in Results of Nanjing Iron & Steel

The steel industry suffered tremendous difficulties in 2012. On one hand, steel price generally stayed at a low level due to markedly weak demand from related downstream industries for steel products and plates in particular. On the other hand, the price of raw materials remained at a high level attributed to the reason of monopoly in the upstream supply of raw materials. The steel industry kept facing such a passive situation under dual pressure, leading to losses in the performance of Nanjing Iron & Steel.

Shareholders and potential investors of the Company are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.
