Webster Bank's Joe Cox Named 5 Star Wealth Manager

WATERBURY, Conn., December 3, 2012 – Webster Private Bank is pleased to announce that Joe M. Cox II, SVP, senior investment manager at Fleming, Perry and Cox Financial Advisors, a Webster Financial Company, has been named a Five Star Wealth Manager in the Connecticut area and will be featured in the December issue of Connecticut Magazine. Cox is based in Stamford, Conn., where he also resides and serves clients throughout the region.

“Joe lives the Webster Way,” said Dan FitzPatrick, executive vice president, Private Banking. “Experience makes the difference in providing superior customer service. Through comprehensive financial planning and specialized attention for each and every client, Joe is a standout member of an excellent team that provides a holistic financial approach that covers all areas of our clients’ financial lives.”

The “Five Star” professional is an industry leader who is evaluated against 10-point objective criteria including client retention and favorable regulatory history. The final list is a select group, representing less than seven-percent of the wealth managers in the Connecticut area.

Cox is not only an industry leader holding CFP, AAMS, CRPC, and AIF certifications, he is also very active in the community. He’s raced several times in the Tour de Cure and raised thousands of dollars for children with diabetes. Cox earned his bachelors degree from Johns Hopkins University and his CFP from The American College.
