CHEMED CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

Meeting of Stockholders

Section 1.01.Place. Meetings of stockholders shall be held at such places, within or without the State of Delaware, as shall be specified in the respective notices or waivers of notice thereof.

Section 1.02.Annual Meetings. An annual meeting of stockholders for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may come before it shall be held at 11:00 o' clock in the forenoon, or at such other hour as may be stated in the notice thereof, on (i) the third Monday of May in each year unless such day is a holiday, in which case it shall be held on the next day following that is not a holiday or (ii) on such other date in such year as the Board of Directors shall determine.

Section 1.03.Special Meetings. (a) Special meetings of stockholders, for any purpose or purposes, may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary, and shall be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary upon the written request of a majority of the Board of Directors or of the holders of record of shares having a majority of the voting power of the stock of the corporation then entitled to vote for the election of directors; provided that any such written stockholder request shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 1.03(b).

(b) Any stockholder or stockholders seeking to have the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary call a special meeting of the stockholders pursuant to Section 1.03(a) shall deliver a written request (the "Meeting Request") in proper form to the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary at the corporation's principal executive offices. Such Meeting Request shall (i) be signed by stockholders holding not less than a majority of the voting power of the stock of the corporation then entitled to vote for the election of directors as of the date such request is received by the corporation, (ii) specify whether the purpose of the special meeting is the election of directors and/or the conduct of other business and (iii) if the stockholder or stockholders are proposing that business other than, or in addition to, the election of directors be so conducted, include a description of the nature of the proposed business and the exact text of any such proposal or business (including the text of any proposed resolutions).

After receipt by the corporation of a Meeting Request in proper form, the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary shall duly call a special meeting of the stockholders for a date no later than 90 days after the receipt of such Meeting Request, for the purpose or purposes specified in the Meeting Request and any other purposes specified by the Board of Directors. The corporation shall promptly provide written notice of such special meeting, and the purpose or purposes thereof, to the stockholders in accordance with Section 1.04.

If the Board of Directors shall determine that any Meeting Request was not properly made in accordance with this Section 1.03(b) or that the subject matter is not a proper purpose for action by the stockholders under applicable law, then the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary shall not be required to call a special meeting of the stockholders pursuant to Section 1.03(a). If none of the stockholders who submitted a Meeting Request appears or sends a Qualified Representative, the corporation need not present such matters for a vote.

Section 1.04. Notice and Waiver of Notice. Unless otherwise provided by law, notice of each annual meeting or special meeting of stockholders, stating the time, place and purpose or purposes thereof, shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the day on which the meeting is to be held, by any manner permitted by applicable law. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, directed to the stockholder at such stockholder's address as it appears on the records of the corporation. Notice of any meeting of stockholders need not be given to any person who may become a stockholder of record after the record date for such meeting fixed pursuant to Section 7.03, nor to any person who shall attend the meeting in person or by proxy nor to any stockholder who shall sign a waiver of such notice in writing either before, after or at the time of such meeting. Except as otherwise provided by law, notice of any adjourned meeting of stockholders need not be given.

Section 1.05. List of Stockholders. The Secretary, or other officer of the corporation who has charge of the stock ledger of the corporation, shall prepare and make, at least ten days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten days prior to such meeting, (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of the meeting, or (ii) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the corporation, and such list shall be produced and kept at the time and place of such meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present. Except as required by law the stock ledger shall be the only evidence of permitted examiners of such list.

Section 1.06.Quorum Adjournment and Postponement. (a) At all meetings of stockholders, the holders of record, present in person or by proxy, of shares having a majority of the voting power of the stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereat, shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A stockholder shall be treated as being present at a meeting if (i) present in person at the meeting or (ii) represented at the meeting by a valid proxy, whether such proxy card is marked as casting a vote or abstaining or is left blank.

(b) In the absence of a quorum, the Chairman of the Board or the holders of record of shares having a majority of the voting power of the stock of the corporation present in person or by proxy at the time and place of the meeting, or of any adjournment thereof, may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the time and place of such meeting or adjournment, until a quorum shall be present. At any adjourned session of any such meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. The stockholders present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact any business for which a quorum existed at the commencement of such meeting until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum.

(c) Any previously-scheduled meeting of stockholders may be postponed by the Board of Directors upon public notice given prior to the time previously scheduled for such meeting.

Section 1.07.Voting. (a) When a quorum is present at any meeting of stockholders, the vote of the holders of shares having a majority of the voting power of the stock of the corporation present and entitled to vote at such meeting shall decide any question brought before such meeting, unless the question is one upon which, by express provision of law or of the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question.

- (b) Each stockholder shall at every meeting of stockholders be entitled to one vote for each share of the capital stock of the corporation registered in such stockholder's name on the books of the corporation at the record date fixed as provided in Section 7.03.
- (c) At all meetings of stockholders, a stockholder may vote either in person or by proxy as may be permitted by applicable law; provided, however, that no proxy shall be voted after one year from its date unless the proxy provides for a longer period. Any proxy to be used at a meeting of stockholders must be delivered to the Secretary or his representative at the principal executive offices of the corporation at or before the time of the meeting.
- (d) The vote on any matter, including the election of directors, need not be by written ballot. Any written ballot shall be signed by the stockholder voting, or by such stockholder's proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted.

Section 1.08.Consent in Lieu of Meeting. (a) Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of record of shares having not less than the minimum voting power that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in the state of Delaware, its principal place of business or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to the corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

- (b) For the corporation to determine the stockholders entitled to take corporate action by written consent without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which date shall not be more than ten days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors. Any stockholder of record seeking to have the stockholders authorize or take corporate action by written consent shall, by written notice to the Secretary, request the Board of Directors to fix a record date for such purpose. The Board of Directors shall promptly, but in all events within ten days after the date on which such request is received by the Secretary, adopt a resolution fixing such record date. If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors within ten days of the date on which such a request is received, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to take corporate action by written consent without a meeting, when no prior action by the Board of Directors is required by applicable law, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the corporation by delivery in the manner set forth in Section 1.08(a). If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors and prior action by the Board of Directors is required by applicable law, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to take corporate action by written consent without a meeting shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action.

- (c) Every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent and no written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within 60 days of the earliest dated consent delivered in the manner required hereby to the Corporation, written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders to take action are delivered to the corporation as set forth in Section 1.08(a).
- (d) A facsimile, electronic mail message, telegram, cablegram or other electronic transmission (each an “electronic transmission”) consenting to an action to be taken and transmitted by a stockholder or proxyholder, or by a person or persons authorized to act for a stockholder or proxyholder, shall be deemed to be written, signed and dated for the purposes hereof if such electronic transmission sets forth or is delivered with information from which the corporation can determine: (i) that the electronic transmission was transmitted by the stockholder or proxyholder or by a person or persons authorized to act for the stockholder or proxyholder and (ii) the date on which such stockholder or proxyholder or authorized person or persons transmitted such electronic transmission. The date on which such electronic transmission is transmitted shall be deemed to be the date on which such consent was signed. No consent given by electronic transmission shall be deemed to have been delivered until such consent is reproduced in paper form and until such paper form shall be delivered to the Corporation by delivery as set forth in Section 1.08(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations on delivery, consents given by electronic transmission may be otherwise delivered to the principal place of business of the corporation or to the Secretary as provided by resolution of the Board of Directors.

- (e) Any copy, facsimile or other reliable reproduction of a consent in writing may be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing and all purposes for which the original writing could be used; provided that such is a complete reproduction of the entire original writing.
- (f) In the event of the delivery to the corporation of a written consent or consents purporting to represent the requisite voting power to authorize or take corporate action and/or any related revocations, the Secretary shall provide for their safekeeping. The Secretary, or such other officer of the corporation as the Board of Directors may designate, shall, as promptly as practicable, conduct a ministerial review of the validity of the consents and/or any related revocations deemed necessary and appropriate; provided, however, that if the corporate action to which the written consent relates is the removal or replacement of one or more members of the Board of Directors, the Secretary, or such other officer of the corporation as the Board of Directors may designate, shall promptly designate two persons, who may be employees of the corporation, but who shall not be members of the Board of Directors or officers of the corporation, to serve as inspectors with respect to such written consent and such inspectors shall discharge the functions of the Secretary, or such other officer of the corporation as the Board of Directors may designate, under this Section 1.08.
- (g) No action by written consent without a meeting shall be effective until such date as the Secretary, such other officer of the corporation as designated by the Board of Directors or the inspectors as appointed in accordance with Section 1.08(f), as applicable, completes its review, determines that such consents represent not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and so certifies to the Board of Directors for entry in the records of the corporation.
- (h) Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing and who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting if the record date for such meeting had been the date that written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders to take the action were delivered to the corporation as provided herein.
- (i) Any stockholder giving a written consent, or the stockholder's proxyholder, may revoke the consent in any manner permitted by applicable law.

Section 1.09. Notice of Stockholder Business and Nominations.

- (a) Annual Meetings of Stockholders. (i) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors and the proposal of other business to be considered by the stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders only (A) pursuant to the corporation's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) delivered pursuant to Section 1.04, (B) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors (or any duly authorized committee thereof) or (C) by any stockholder who is entitled to vote at the meeting on the election of directors or such business (as applicable), who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 1.09 and who is a stockholder of record at the time such notice is delivered to the Secretary.

To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the corporation not later than the close of business on the 90th day, nor earlier than the close of business on the 120th day, prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that if no annual meeting was held in the preceding year or if the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days, or delayed by more than 90 days, from such anniversary date, timely notice by the stockholder must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or, if the first public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is less than 100 days prior to the date of such annual meeting, the 10th day following the day on which the public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the corporation. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described in this Section 1.09(a)(ii).
- (iii) (A) A stockholder's written notice to the Secretary for the conduct of business (other than nominations of persons for have entered into other transactions that hedge the economic effect of such interest (any such interest described in this clause (2)(c) being a “Derivative Interest”);

(3) the name of each person with whom such stockholder or Stockholder Associated Person has any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether written or oral) (a) for the purposes of acquiring, holding, voting (except pursuant to a revocable proxy given to such person in response to a public proxy or consent solicitation made generally by such person to all holders of shares of the corporation) or disposing of any shares of capital stock of the corporation, (b) to cooperate in obtaining, changing or influencing the control of the corporation (except independent financial, legal and other advisors acting in the ordinary course of their respective businesses), (c) with the effect or intent of increasing or decreasing the voting power of, or that contemplates any person voting together with, any such stockholder or Stockholder Associated Person with respect to any shares of the capital stock of the corporation or any business proposed by the stockholder or (d) otherwise in connection with any business proposed by a stockholder and a description of each such agreement, arrangement or understanding (any agreement, arrangement or understanding described in this clause (3) being a “Voting Agreement”);

(4) details of all other material interests of each stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person in such proposal or any security of the corporation or Derivative Interests (including any rights to dividends or performance-related fees based on any increase or decrease in the value of such security or Derivative Interests) (collectively, “Other Interests”);

(iv) A stockholder's written notice to the Secretary for nominations of directors shall set forth:

(A) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director:

(2) any other information relating to such stockholder and any Stockholder Associated Person that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for the election of directors in a contested election (even if a contested election is not involved) pursuant to Regulation 14A of the Exchange Act (or any successor provision thereto);

(3) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to propose such nomination; and

(4) a representation as to whether the stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person intends, or is part of a group that intends, to (a) deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the outstanding capital stock of the corporation required to elect the nominee or (b) otherwise solicit proxies or votes from stockholders in support of such nomination.

(v) For purposes of this Section 1.09, the following terms have the following meanings:

(A) “Director Questionnaire” as defined in Section 2.02(b).

(B) “Director Representation and Agreement” as defined in Section 2.02(b).

(C) “public announcement” means disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or other national news service or in a document publicly filed by the corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (or any successor provisions thereto).

(D) “Stockholder Associated Person” of any stockholder means (1) any beneficial owner of shares of stock of the corporation on whose behalf any proposal or nomination is made by such stockholder; (2) any affiliates or associates of such stockholder or any beneficial owner described in clause (1); and (3) each other person with whom any of the persons described in the clauses (1) and (2) either is acting in concert with respect to the corporation or has any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether written or oral) for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting (except pursuant to a revocable proxy given

(b) Special Meetings of Stockholders. Business transacted at any special meeting of stockholders shall be limited to the purpose or purposes stated in the corporation's notice of meeting delivered pursuant to Section 1.04. At a special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected pursuant to the corporation's notice of meeting, nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made (A) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors (or any duly authorized committee thereof) or (B) by any stockholder of the corporation who is a stockholder of record at the time the notice provided for in this Section 1.09(b) is delivered to the Secretary, who is entitled to vote for the election of directors at such meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 1.09(b). Any stockholder entitled to vote in an election of directors may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be) for election to such position(s) as specified in the corporation's notice of meeting for a special meeting of stockholders, if (i) the stockholder's notice required by this Section 1.09(b) shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the corporation not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the 90th day prior to such special meeting or, if the first public announcement of the date of such special meeting is less than 100 days prior to the date of such special meeting, the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of the meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting is first made by the corporation, and (ii) such stockholder's notice contains the information that would have been required by Section 1.09(a)(iv) if Section 1.09(a)(iv) were applicable to nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors made in connection with a special meeting of the stockholders. No public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of a special meeting shall commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of such a stockholder's notice.

(c) General. (i) Only such persons nominated in accordance with this Section 1.09 shall be eligible to be elected at an annual or special meeting of stockholders to serve as directors and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance this Section 1.09. Except as otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation, these By-Laws or applicable law, and in furtherance of Section 1.10, the person presiding over the meeting shall have the power and duty (A) to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made or proposed in accordance with this Section 1.09 (including whether any stockholder or beneficial owner on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made solicited (or is part of a group which solicited) or did not so solicit, proxies or votes in support of such stockholder's nominee or proposal in compliance with such stockholder's representation as required by Section 1.09(a)(iii)(B)(9) and Section 1.09(a)(iv)(B)(4)) and (B) if any proposed nomination or business was not so made or proposed in compliance with this Section 1.09, to declare that such nomination shall be disregarded or that such proposed business shall not be transacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 1.09, unless otherwise required by applicable law, if the stockholder (or a qualified representative of the stockholder) does not appear at the annual or special meeting of stockholders to present a nomination or, in the case of an annual meeting, proposed business, such nomination shall be disregarded and such proposed business shall not be transacted, notwithstanding that proxies in respect of such vote may have been received by the corporation. For purposes of these By-Laws, to be considered a qualified representative of the stockholder, a person must be a duly authorized officer, manager or partner of such stockholder or must be authorized by a writing executed by such stockholder or an electronic transmission delivered by such stockholder to act for such stockholder as proxy at the meeting of stockholders and such person must produce such writing or electronic transmission, or a reliable reproduction of the writing or electronic transmission, at the meeting of stockholders ("Qualified Representative").

- (ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 1.09,
 - (A) a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 1.09 and (B) nothing in this Section 1.09 shall be deemed to affect any rights of any stockholder to request inclusion of proposals for business (other than nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors) in the corporation's proxy statement if the stockholder has notified the corporation of its intention to present a proposal at an annual meeting of stockholders in compliance with the Exchange Act, and if such stockholder's proposal has been included in a proxy statement prepared by the corporation to solicit proxies for such annual meeting, such stockholder shall be deemed to have satisfied the notice requirements of this Section 1.09 with respect to such proposal.

- (iii) A notice delivered by or on behalf of any stockholder under Section 1.09(a) or 1.09(b) shall be deemed to be not in compliance with such Section 1.09(a) or 1.09(b), and not be effective if, after delivery of such notice, any information or document required to be included in such notice changes or is amended, modified or supplemented, prior to the date of the meeting and such information and/or document is not delivered to the corporation by way of a further written notice as promptly as practicable following the event causing such change in information or amendment, modification or supplement, and where such event occurs within 45 days of the date of the relevant meeting, within five business days after such event; provided, however, that the Board of Directors shall have the authority to waive any such non-compliance if the Board of Directors determines that such action is appropriate in the exercise of its fiduciary duties.

Section 1.10. Inspectors of Elections; Opening and Closing the Polls. (a) To the extent required by applicable law, the Board of Directors by resolution or the Chairman of the Board shall appoint one or more inspectors, who may be employees of the corporation, to act at the meeting and make a written report thereof. One or more persons may be designated as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. Each inspector, before discharging his duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his ability. The inspectors shall have the duties prescribed by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

- (b) Meetings of the stockholders shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board, or if he is not present, by the Chief Executive Officer, or if he is not present, by the President, the Chief Operating Officer (if one has been elected) or a Vice President, as designated by the Board of Directors, or if none of such officers is present, by another person designated by the Board of Directors to preside over the meeting. The Secretary, if present, shall act as secretary of such meetings, or if he is not present, an Assistant Secretary shall so act; if neither the Secretary nor an Assistant Secretary is present, then a secretary shall be appointed by the person presiding over the meeting. The date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at a meeting shall be announced at the meeting by the person presiding over the meeting. The Board of Directors may adopt by resolution such rules and regulations for the conduct of the meeting of stockholders as it shall deem appropriate. Except to the extent inconsistent with such rules and regulations as adopted by the Board of Directors, the person presiding over any meeting of stockholders shall have the right and authority to convene and (for any or no reason) to adjourn the meeting and to prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and to do all such acts as, in the judgment of such presiding person, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting. Such rules, regulations or procedures, whether adopted by the Board of Directors or prescribed by the person presiding over the meeting, may include the following: (i) the establishment of an agenda or order of business for the meeting; (ii) rules and procedures for maintaining order at the meeting and the safety of those present; (iii) limitations on attendance at or participation in the meeting to stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, their duly authorized and constituted proxies or such other persons as such presiding person shall determine; (iv) restrictions on entry to the meeting after the time fixed for the commencement thereof; and (v) limitations on the time allotted to questions or comments by participants. The person presiding over any meeting of stockholders, in addition to making any other determinations that may be appropriate to the conduct of the meeting, shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a matter or business was not properly brought before the meeting and any such matter or business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted or considered.

ARTICLE II

Directors

Section 2.01.Number. The number of directors which shall constitute the Whole Board of Directors shall be no fewer than three nor more than forty. The first Board of Directors as of the date of these By-Laws shall consist of eleven directors. Thereafter, within the minimum and maximum above specified, the number of directors which shall constitute the Whole Board of Directors shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors or, in the absence thereof, shall be the number of directors elected at the preceding annual meeting of stockholders. The term “Whole Board of Directors” shall mean the total number of directors most recently determined pursuant to this Section 2.01, whether or not there exist any vacancies or unfilled previously authorized directorships.

Section 2.02.Election; Qualification. (a) Directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of stockholders, and may also be elected as provided in Section 2.04 of this Article. ~~Directors shall be chosen~~Except as otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation, these By-laws, the rules and regulations of any stock exchange applicable to the corporation, or applicable law or pursuant to any regulation applicable to the corporation or its securities, at all meetings of stockholders for the election of directors at which a quorum is present, each director nominee shall be elected by the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast by the holders of record, present in person or by proxy, of shares entitled to vote for the election of directors; provided, however, that in a contested election (as defined herein), directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast. For the purposes of this Section 2.02, the “affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast” shall mean that the number of votes cast “for” a nominee’s election exceeds the number of votes cast “against” that nominee’s election. Abstentions and broker non-votes shall not be counted as votes cast. A direction to “withhold authority” with respect to a nominee shall be treated as a vote cast against the election of such nominee. An election shall be contested if, as determined by the Board of Directors, (i) a stockholder has nominated any person(s) for election to the Board of Directors in compliance with the requirements for stockholder nominees for director set forth in Section 1.09 or otherwise in accordance with applicable law and (ii) such nomination has not been withdrawn by such stockholder on or prior to the fourteenth day prior to the date the corporation first mails its notice of meeting. Directors need not be stockholders of the corporation.

- (b) Each director of the corporation and nominee for election as a director of the corporation must, as a qualification to serve as a director, deliver to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the corporation: (i) a written questionnaire with respect to the background and qualifications of such person and of any other person or entity on whose behalf the nomination is made (which questionnaire shall be provided by the Secretary upon written request) (a “Director Questionnaire”) and (ii) a written representation and agreement (in the form provided by the Secretary upon written request) (the “Director Representation and Agreement”) that such person: (A) is not, if serving as a director of the corporation, and will not become, while serving as a director of the corporation, a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding (whether written or oral) with, and has not given any commitment or assurance to, any person or entity (1) as to how such person will act or vote on any issue or question to be considered by the Board of Directors (or any committee thereof) or (2) that could limit or interfere with such person’s ability to comply with such person’s duties as a director of the corporation under applicable law while serving as such that, in the case of this clause (2), has not been disclosed therein, (B) is not and will not become a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding

(whether written or oral) with any person or entity other than the corporation with respect to any direct or indirect compensation, reimbursement or indemnification in connection with service or action as a director of the corporation that has not been disclosed in writing to the corporation, (C) is, if serving as a director of the corporation, or would be if elected as a director of the corporation, and will be, while serving as such, in compliance with all applicable corporate governance, conflict of interest, confidentiality and securities ownership and trading policies and guidelines of the corporation (copies of which shall be provided by the Secretary upon written request) (subject to any waivers or exemptions granted pursuant to a resolution of the majority of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors) and any other policies applicable to directors of the corporation ~~and~~, (D) irrevocably submits such person's resignation as a director, if serving, or if elected as a director of the corporation, effective upon a finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that such person has breached the Director Representation and Agreement in any material respect and (E) irrevocably submits such person's resignation as a director, if serving, effective upon (1) such person's failure to receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the next stockholder meeting at which he or she faces reelection and (2) the Board of Directors' acceptance of such resignation.

(c) If any nominee for director in a non-contested election does not receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at a stockholder meeting, and such nominee is an incumbent director, the Nominating Committee shall assess the appropriateness of such nominee continuing to serve as director and shall recommend to the Board of Directors the action to be taken with respect to the resignation such nominee submitted in accordance with Section 2.02(b)(ii)(E). In reaching its recommendation, the Nominating Committee may consider factors it deems relevant, including, but not limited to, the director's qualifications, the director's past and expected future contributions to the corporation, the stated reason or reasons why stockholders voted against such director's reelection, the overall composition of the Board of Directors, the availability of other qualified candidates for director and whether accepting the tendered resignation would cause the corporation to fail to meet any applicable rule or regulation (including New York Stock Exchange listing requirements and federal securities laws). The Nominating Committee's evaluation shall begin promptly following the certification of the voting results and shall be forwarded to the Board of Directors to permit the Board of Directors to act on it no later than 90 days following the certification of the stockholder vote. In reviewing the Nominating Committee's recommendation, the Board of Directors shall consider the factors evaluated by the Nominating Committee and such additional information and factors as the Board of Directors believes to be relevant. The corporation shall publicly disclose the Board of Directors' decision within four business days in a Form 8-K, providing an explanation of the process by which the decision was reached and, if applicable, the reasons for not accepting the director's resignation. Any director whose resignation is evaluated and decided upon pursuant to this provision shall not participate in the Nominating Committee's recommendation or Board of Directors' action regarding whether to accept the resignation offer. If a majority of the members of the Nominating Committee fail to receive the required vote in favor of their elections in the same election, then those independent directors on the Board of Directors (as most recently determined by the Board of Directors pursuant to applicable listing guidelines) who did receive the required vote shall consider the resignation offers and recommend to the Board of Directors whether to accept them.

(d) If the Board of Directors accepts a director's resignation pursuant to Section 2.02(c), or if a nominee for director is not elected and the nominee is not an incumbent director, then the Board of Directors may fill the resulting vacancy pursuant to Section 2.04 or may decrease the size of the Board of Directors pursuant to Section 2.01.

Section 2.03. Term of Office. Each director shall serve until his successor is elected and qualified; in accordance with Section 2.02, or until his death, resignation, disqualification or removal.

Section 2.04. Resignations; Removals; Filling of Vacancies. Any director may resign at any time by giving notice of such resignation to the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary. Unless otherwise specified in such notice, such resignation shall be effective upon receipt of such notice by the Board of Directors or such officer. Any director may be removed at any time, either for or without cause, by vote of the holders of shares having a majority of the voting power of the stock of the corporation entitled to vote for the election of directors.

Vacancies in the Board of Directors, whether caused by resignation, removal, death or any other reason, and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors, may be filled either by majority vote of the directors then remaining in office (whether or not sufficient in number to constitute a quorum), or by a sole remaining director, or ~~by a plurality of the votes cast~~ in accordance with Section 2.02 at the meeting of stockholders held for that purpose. In the event that one or more directors shall resign from the Board, effective at a future date, a majority of the directors then in office, including those who have so resigned effective at a future date, shall have power to fill the vacancy or vacancies which will result when such resignation or resignations become effective, the vote thereon to take effect when such resignation or resignations become effective.

Section 2.05.Powers. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors, which may exercise all such powers of the corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation or by these By-Laws directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

Section 2.06.Chairman of the Board. The Board of Directors may elect from its members a Chairman of the Board who shall serve until the next annual election of directors, or until his death, resignation, disqualification or removal. The Chairman of the Board shall preside at all stockholder and Board meetings and perform such duties and have such powers as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors. The Chairman may resign at any time by giving notice of such resignation to the Board of Directors. Unless otherwise specified in such notice, such resignation shall be effective upon receipt of such notice by the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board may be removed from such position at any time, either for or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Whole Board of Directors. In the event that the position of Chairman of the Board becomes vacant for any reason, the Chief Executive Officer shall assume the position of Chairman of the Board until such time as a new Chairman of the Board is elected by a majority of the Whole Board of Directors.

writing and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors.

Section 3.06.Participation by Telephone. Directors may participate in any meeting of the Board of Directors by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in such meeting can hear each other, and such participation shall constitute such directors' presence at such meeting.

Such indemnification shall be a contract right and shall include the right to receive payment in advance of any expenses incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with such Proceeding, consistent with the provisions of applicable law as then in effect.

Section 9.02.Insurance, Contracts and Funding. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance to protect itself and any Indemnitee against any expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement as specified in Section 9.01 of this Article or incurred by any Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding referred to in Section 9.01 of this Article, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as then in effect. The corporation may enter into contracts with any director or officer of the corporation in furtherance of the provisions of this Article and may create a trust fund, grant a security interest or use other means (including, without limitation, a letter of credit) to ensure the payment of such amounts as may be necessary to effect indemnification as provided in this Article.

Section 9.03.Indemnification; Not Exclusive Right. The right of indemnification provided in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may otherwise be entitled, and the provisions of this Article shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and legal representatives of any person entitled to indemnification under this Article and shall be applicable to Proceedings commenced or continuing after the adoption of this Article, whether arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after such adoption.

Section 9.04.Advancement of Expenses; Procedures; Presumptions and Effect of Certain Proceedings; Remedies. In furtherance, but not in limitation of the foregoing provisions, the following procedures, presumptions and remedies shall apply with respect to advancement of expenses and the right to indemnification under this Article:

(a) Advancement of Expenses. All reasonable expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding shall be advanced to the Indemnitee by the corporation within 20 days after the receipt by the corporation of a statement or statements from the Indemnitee requesting such advance or advances from time to time, whether prior to or after final disposition of such Proceeding. Such statement or statements shall reasonably evidence the expenses incurred by the Indemnitee and, if required by law at the time of such advance, shall include or be accompanied by an undertaking by or on behalf of the Indemnitee to repay the amounts advanced if it should ultimately be determined that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified against such expenses pursuant to this Article.

(b) Procedure for Determination of Entitlement to Indemnification.

(i) To obtain indemnification under this Article, an Indemnitee shall submit to the Secretary of the corporation a written request, including such documentation and information as is reasonably available to the Indemnitee and reasonably necessary to determine whether and to what extent the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification (the “Supporting Documentation”). The determination of the Indemnitee’s entitlement to indemnification shall be made not later than 60 days after receipt by the corporation of the written request for indemnification together with the Supporting Documentation. The Secretary of the corporation shall, promptly upon receipt of such a request for indemnification, advise the Board of Directors in writing that the Indemnitee has requested indemnification.

(ii) The Indemnitee’s entitlement to indemnification under this Article shall be determined in one of the following ways:

- (a) by a majority vote of the Disinterested Directors (as hereinafter defined), if they constitute a quorum of the Board of Directors;
- (b) by a written opinion on Independent Counsel (as hereinafter defined) if (x) a Change of Control (as hereinafter defined) shall have occurred and the Indemnitee so requests or (y) a quorum of the Board of Directors consisting of Disinterested Directors is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, a majority of such Disinterested Directors so directs;
- (c) by the stockholders of the corporation (but only if a majority of the Disinterested Directors, if they constitute a quorum of the Board of Directors, presents the issue of entitlement to indemnification to the stockholders for their determination); or (d) as provided in Section 9.04(c).

(iii) In the event the determination of entitlement to indemnification is to be made by Independent Counsel pursuant to Section 9.04(b)(ii), a majority of the Disinterested Directors shall select the Independent Counsel, but only an Independent Counsel to which the Indemnitee does not reasonably object; provided, however, that if a Change of Control shall have occurred, the Indemnitee shall select such Independent Counsel, but only an Independent Counsel to which the Board of Directors does not reasonably object.

(c) Presumptions and Effect of Certain Proceedings. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Article, the Indemnitee shall be presumed to be entitled to indemnification under this Article upon submission of a request for indemnification together with the Supporting Documentation in accordance with Section 9.04(b)(i), and thereafter the corporation shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption in reaching a contrary determination. In any event, if the person or persons empowered under Section 9.04(b) to determine entitlement to indemnification shall not have been appointed or shall not have made a determination within 60 days after receipt by the corporation of the request therefore together with the Supporting Documentation, the Indemnitee shall be deemed to be entitled to indemnification and the Indemnitee shall be entitled to such indemnification unless (a) the Indemnitee misrepresented or failed to disclose a material fact in making the request for indemnification or in the Supporting Documentation or (b) such indemnification is prohibited by law. The termination of any Proceeding described in Section 9.01, or of any claim, issue or matter therein, by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, adversely affect the right of the Indemnitee to indemnification or create a presumption that the Indemnitee did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not apposed to the best interests of the corporation or, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, that the Indemnitee had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(d) Remedies of Indemnitee. (i) In the event that a determination is made pursuant to Section 9.04(b) that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification under this Article, (a) the Indemnitee shall be entitled to seek an adjudication of his entitlement to such indemnification either, at the Indemnitee's sole option, in (x) an appropriate court of the State of Delaware or any other court of competent jurisdiction or (y) an arbitration to be conducted by a single arbitrator pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association; (b) any such judicial proceeding or arbitration shall be de novo and the Indemnitee shall not be prejudiced by reason of such adverse determination; and (c) in any such judicial proceeding or arbitration the corporation shall have the burden of proving that the Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification under this Article.

(ii) If a determination shall have been made or deemed to have been made, pursuant to Section 9.04(b) or (c), that the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, the corporation shall be obligated to pay the amounts constituting such indemnification within five days after such determination has been made or deemed to have been made and shall be conclusively bound by such determination unless (a) the Indemnitee misrepresented or failed to disclose a material fact in making the request for indemnification or in the Supporting Documentation or (b) such indemnification is prohibited by law. In the event that (c) advancement of expenses is not timely made pursuant to Section 9.04(a) or (d) payment of indemnification is not made within five days after a determination of entitlement to indemnification has been made or deemed to have been made pursuant to Section 9.04(b) or (c), the Indemnitee shall be entitled to seek judicial enforcement of the corporation's obligation to pay to the Indemnitee such advancement of expenses or indemnification. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation may bring an action, in an appropriate court in the State of Delaware or any other court of competent jurisdiction, contesting the right of the Indemnitee to receive indemnification hereunder due to the occurrence of an event described in subclause (a) or (b) of this clause (ii)(a "disqualifying Event"); provided, however, that in any such action the corporation shall have the burden of proving the occurrence of such Disqualifying Event.

(iii) The corporation shall be precluded from asserting in any judicial proceeding or arbitration commenced pursuant to this Section 9.04(d) that the procedures and presumptions of this Article are not valid, binding and enforceable and shall stipulate in any such court or before any such arbitrator that the corporation is bound by all the provisions of this Article.

(iv) In the event that the Indemnitee, pursuant to this Section 9.04(d), seeks a judicial adjudication of or an award in arbitration to enforce his rights under, or to recover damages for breach of, this Article, the Indemnitee shall be entitled to recover from the corporation, and shall be indemnified by the corporation against, any expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him if the Indemnitee prevails in such judicial adjudication or arbitration. If it shall be determined in such judicial adjudication or arbitration that the Indemnitee is entitled to receive part but not all of the indemnification or advancement of expenses sought, the expenses incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with such judicial adjudication or arbitration shall be prorated accordingly.

- (e) Definitions. For the purposes of this Section 9.04: (i) “Change in Control” means a change in control of the corporation of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Section 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act (or any successor provision thereto), whether or not the corporation is then subject to such reporting requirement; provided that, without limitation, such a change in control shall be deemed to have occurred if (a) any “person” (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act (or any successor provision thereto)) is or becomes the “beneficial owner” (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act (or any successor provision thereto)), directly or indirectly, of securities of the corporation representing 5 percent or more of the combined voting power of the corporation’s then outstanding securities without the prior approval of at least two-thirds of the members of the Board of Directors in office immediately prior to such acquisition; (b) the corporation is a party to a merger, consolidation, sale of assets or other reorganization, or a proxy contest, as a consequence of which members of the Board of Directors in office immediately prior to such transaction or event constitute less than a majority of the Board of Directors thereafter; or (c) during any period of two consecutive years, individuals who at the beginning of such period constituted the Board of Directors (including for this purpose any new director whose election or nomination for election by the corporation’s stockholders was approved by a vote of at least a majority of the directors then still in office who were directors at the beginning of such period) cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board of Directors.
- (ii) “Disinterested Director” means a director of the corporation who is not or was not a party to the Proceeding in respect of which indemnification is sought by the Indemnitee.

(iii) “Independent Counsel” means a law firm or a member of a law firm that neither presently is, nor in the past five years has been, retained to represent: (i) the corporation or the Indemnitee in any matter material to either such party or (ii) any other party to the Proceeding giving rise to a claim for indemnification under this Article. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term “Independent Counsel” shall not include any person who, under the applicable standards of professional conduct then prevailing under the law of the State of Delaware, would have a conflict of interest in representing either the corporation or the Indemnitee in an action to determine the Indemnitee’s rights under this Article.

Section 9.05. Severability. If any provision or provisions of this Article shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever: (a) the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Article (including, without limitation, all portions of any paragraph of this Article containing any such provisions held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that are not themselves invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby; and (b) to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Article (including, without limitation, all portions of any paragraph of this Article containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that are not themselves invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested by the provision held invalid, illegal or unenforceable.

Section 9.06. Amendment. No provision of this Article shall be amended retroactively. In no case shall any amendment of this Article occur without thirty days’ advance written notice to all Indemnitees.
