Webster Private Bank Sponsors Greenwich Town Party

Webster Private Bank, an enhanced full-service private bank building upon Webster Bank's almost 80-years of commitment, trust, and its reputation for exceptional customer experience, is pleased to be a Founder's Circle sponsor of the Greenwich Town Party (GTP) in Greenwich, Conn., on Saturday, May 25, 2013. In addition to its three-year commitment of financial support to the GTP, Webster Private Bank will provide free photo booth photograph opportunities to members of the community enjoying the festivities. Your coverage is welcome.

What: Webster Bank Photo Booth

When: 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and then 2:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Where: Roger Sherman Baldwin Park and then 290 Greenwich Avenue (Between the Board of Education & Greenwich Common)

"The Greenwich Town Party is all about bringing people together to celebrate the community of Greenwich, and as a committed member of that community, Webster Private Bank is pleased both to be a Founder's Circle sponsor of the party and to provide a little extra in the form of a free photo booth to capture some of the lasting memories certain to be made there," said Daniel FitzPatrick, executive vice president of Webster Bank and Head of Webster Private Bank.

In January of 2013, Webster Bank officially opened its banking center at 85 Mason Street which houses traditional banking services and Webster Private Bank which offers customized, one-stop, full service financial solutions for high net-worth individuals, businesses and non-profits with $1 million or greater in investible assets. Webster Private Bankers work in seven regional teams throughout the four-state footprint from Westchester County, N.Y. to Boston, Mass.
