High School Inc. Students Job Shadow at Webster Bank

WATERBURY, Conn., May 21, 2013 – Webster Bank, a leading regional bank serving businesses and consumers from Westchester County, N.Y. to Boston, Mass., is pleased to have hosted a Job Shadow opportunity for seven High School Inc. students because mentorship opens doors for the students of today as they prepare to become the leaders of tomorrow. Webster has taken part in the job shadow and internship program for two years.

The students toured the City Place II banking center in Downtown Hartford, Conn., and got the chance to ask questions about how banking works from experts in the field. The Webster bankers who played key roles in the May 16th session were:

- Joanne Miller, vice president, SBA specialist;
- Bill Wrang, executive vice president, commercial real estate;
- Phil Picillo, senior vice president, director of Treasury & Payment Solutions;
- Chip Olson, senior vice president, director of sales, Webster Private Bank;
- Adam McLaughlin, vice president, relationship manager, commercial banking;
- Jon Zolty, senior line of business credit manager; and
- Sharon Simoncelli, sales support specialist, Treasury & Payment Solutions

High School, Inc. is a public high school for students who are interested in pursuing careers in the insurance and financial services industries. Located in Downtown Hartford, it provides real-world connections between the students' curriculum and classroom lessons. It has also been recognized nationally for its achievements and has been featured in: Black Enterprise Magazine, Channel 3's Cool Schools, FoxCT's The Real Story, The Hartford Courant and The Point of View.
