Webster Private Bank Adds Senior Investment Manager

WATERBURY, Conn., April 29, 2013 – Webster Bank, a leading regional bank serving businesses and consumers from Westchester County, N.Y., to Boston, Mass., today announced that Madorie O’Hara has joined Webster Private Bank as vice president, senior investment manager and will be based in Stamford, Conn.

Most recently, O’Hara served with Citigroup as a member of the Citi Private Bank tailored portfolio group, managing equity and balanced portfolios for private clients, trusts, and charitable organizations.

"Madorie brings more than 20 years of investment experience to Webster Private Bank, enhancing an already strong team of professionals who focus on being experts in understanding and meeting their clients’ needs," said Dan FitzPatrick, EVP and Head of Webster Private Bank. "As a critical member of that team, Madorie will provide objective, holistic financial advice as well as relevant products and services in an integrated approach to help our clients achieve their financial goals."

O’Hara earned her Bachelor’s degree in Business Management and Finance from Brooklyn College and a Masters in Financial Planning at the College for Financial Planning in Colorado. She holds CFA and CFP designations and is Series 7 licensed. O’Hara is a resident of Norwalk, Conn.

In January of this year, Webster opened its newest branch in Greenwich, Conn. That location, 85 Mason Street, is also home to a Webster Private Bank office which builds upon Webster’s almost 80 years of commitment, trust and strong reputation for delivering an exceptional customer experience. Webster Private Bank provides premium banking, investment management, financial planning, and fiduciary services customized for individuals, business owners, and institutions with at least $1 million or greater in investible assets. Webster Private Bankers work in seven regional teams throughout the firm’s four-state footprint.
