Webster Banker Named Fairfield County 40 Under 40

WATERBURY, Conn., June 21, 2013 –Webster Bank, a leading regional bank serving businesses and consumers from Westchester County, N.Y. to Boston, Mass., is pleased to announce that Desiree Wolfe, senior vice president, Marketing has received the “2013 Fairfield County 40 Under 40 Award” by the Fairfield County Business Journal/Westfair Communications.

Wolfe joined Webster in 2010 and has risen through the ranks quickly in a short period of time holding the following positions: Product Manager, Consumer Lending; Manager, Marketing Management; and now her current role as SVP, Director Consumer Banking Product Management.

“Desiree consistently delivers results above expectations,” said Michelle Crecca, executive vice president, Chief Marketing Officer at Webster Bank. “She has demonstrated by example all of Webster’s core values including delivering an exceptional customer experience. She has built great partnerships within and across the various business lines. Desiree is also involved in her community, another Webster core value. We congratulate her on this well-deserved achievement. I am proud to have her on my team.”

A resident of Shelton, Conn., Wolfe earned her Bachelor’s degree from Georgetown University and her MBA from Columbia Business School. She serves on the Board of the Fairfield County Columbia University Club and the Living Word Community Church.

The winners of the “2013 Fairfield County 40 Under 40 Awards” were honored at a special reception on June 20 at the Hotel Zero Degrees in Norwalk, Conn.
