Re: Delisting of HeartWare CDIs (Symbol: HIN) from ASX

Dear HeartWare CDI Holder,

This letter is to remind you that effective September 10, 2013 HeartWare CDIs will be suspended from trading on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX). We are enclosing for your reference a copy of the mailing which was sent by HeartWare to all of its CDI holders on 17 June 2013 setting forth certain actions you will need to take.

Note: If you have already taken action with respect to your HeartWare CDI holdings, you may disregard this notice. Otherwise, please carefully read the remainder of this notice. These materials may also be found on HeartWare's website (www.heartware.com) on the Investor Relations home page.

In summary, HeartWare CDIs will trade on ASX only until the close of trading on 10 September 2013, when trading will be suspended. Following the suspension of trading in CDIs, CDI holders will no longer be able to trade their holdings of CDIs on ASX. Following the suspension of CDIs from quotation, HeartWare will be removed from the official list of ASX on 17 September 2013.

CDI holders have the following options with respect to their CDI holdings in conjunction with the delisting of HeartWare from the official list of ASX:

1. Sell your CDIs on ASX before the Suspension Date of 10 September 2013;
2. Retain your holding in HeartWare by converting your CDIs into shares of common stock prior to 18 December 2013;
3. Participate in the Voluntary Sale Facility which is open for participation between 18 September 2013 and 18 December 2013; or
4. Do nothing in which case your CDIs which will then be sold under the Compulsory Sale Process in late December.

Further information is included in the enclosed Frequently Asked Questions. Also enclosed for your convenience are a Voluntary Share Sale Form, a Form W8-BEN and a Register Removal Form. Please note that if you are a current CHESS sponsored shareholder, on 24 September 2013 (5 business days following delisting), your CHESS sponsored holding will automatically convert to an Issuer Sponsored Holding.

As a result of this, you will no longer be able to convert your CDI's into common stock through your broker electronically - you will need to send in the Register Removal Form to Computershare.

Please note, if you elect to participate in the Voluntary Sale Facility, or take no action and become part of the Compulsory Sale Facility, and do not provide Computershare with a valid IRS Form W-8BEN, Computershare may be required to withhold taxes of 28% on your sales proceeds. Please refer to Options 4 and 5 in the enclosed letter to CDI Holders for more information.

As the delisting date is approaching, it is important you review the enclosed documents and consult your financial, legal, tax or other professional advisor if you have any queries.

If you have any questions about the delisting process, please contact Computershare Investor Services Pty Ltd on 1300 394 367 (within Australia) or + 61 3 9415 4884 (outside Australia) between 8.30am and 5.00pm (Sydney time).

Respectfully yours,
