Webster Bank Receives Job Shadow of the Year Award

HARTFORD, Conn., September 25, 2013 – Webster Bank, a leading regional bank serving businesses and consumers from metro New York to Boston, Mass., recently received the Job Shadow of the Year award at the High School, Inc., Annual Celebration Event. The ceremony was held on September 5 at The Aetna Theatre in Hartford, Conn. It recognizes the achievements of the students and acknowledges the dedication and enthusiasm of community partners.

“We are pleased to take such an active role in mentoring students,” said Joanne Miller, vice president, SBA Specialist at Webster Bank and a member of the High School Inc., Advisory Board. “Through executive luncheons, job shadows, summer internships, and volunteer activities, we have the opportunity to harness the students’ enthusiasm about careers in finance and help them develop the skills they will need to be successful in college and in life.”

High School, Inc., is a college preparatory school in the Hartford Public School system. It engages 400 students who are interested in pursuing careers in the insurance and financial services industries. Located in Downtown Hartford, Conn., it is uniquely positioned to work with major employers who provide real-world experience.
