Committee members shall be appointed and may be removed at any time by the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall recommend to the Board, and the Board shall designate, the Chair of the Committee.

Responsibilities

In addition to any other responsibilities which may be assigned from time to time by the Board, the Committee is responsible for the following matters.

Compensation Policies and Plans

The Committee shall review, approve and administer the Company's compensation and benefits policies generally (subject, if applicable, to shareholder ratification), including reviewing, approving and administering any incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans of the Company, including grants made thereunder. In reviewing such compensation and benefits policies, the Committee may consider the recruitment, development, promotion, retention and compensation of Designated Officers (as defined below) and other employees of the Company and any other factors that it deems appropriate. The Committee shall report the results of such review and any action it takes with respect to the Company's compensation and benefits policies to the Board.

The Committee may delegate to one or more officers of the Company the authority to make grants and awards of share rights or options to any officer or employee of the Company that is not a Designated Officer under such of the Company's incentive-compensation or other equity-based plans as the Committee deems appropriate, in accordance with the terms of such plans and consistent with Bermuda law. Any officer to whom the Committee grants such authority shall regularly report to the Committee grants so made and the Committee may revoke any delegation of authority at any time.

Executive Compensation

The Committee shall determine for each employee of the Company (a “Designated Officer”) who is an executive officer of the Company or an officer of the Company for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act, including the Chief Executive Officer, his or her compensation, including (i) annual base salary level, (ii) annual incentive compensation, (iii) long-term incentive compensation, (iv) employment, severance and change-in-control agreements, if any, and (v) any other compensation, ongoing perquisites or special benefit items.

In so determining executive compensation, the Committee shall, among other things:

- identify corporate goals and objectives relevant to executive compensation;
- evaluate each Designated Officer's performance in light of such goals and objectives and determine each Designated Officer's compensation based on such evaluation and such other factors as the Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company (including but not limited to the Chief Executive Officer's recommendation and evaluation of each individual's performance, the cost to the Company of such compensation and considering the results of the most recent shareholder advisory vote on executive compensation (Say on Pay Vote)); and
- determine any long-term incentive component of each Designated Officer's compensation based on awards given to such Designated Officer in past years, the Company's performance, shareholder return and the value of similar incentive awards relative to such targets at comparable companies and such other factors as the Human Resources Committee deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company (including the cost to the Company of such compensation and considering the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote).

Risk Assessment

The Committee shall review and assess risks arising from the Company's compensation policies and practices for its employees and whether any such risks are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

The Committee shall also review such other risks related to the Company's employees, including those that may be assigned to it by the Risk Committee.

Management Succession

The Committee shall, in consultation with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, regularly review the Company's management succession planning, including policies for Chief Executive Officer selection and succession in the event of the incapacitation, retirement or removal of the Chief Executive Officer, and evaluations of, and development plans for, any potential successors to the Chief Executive Officer.

The

Committee shall prepare the compensation committee report required by SEC rules to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement or annual report on Form 10-K.

Say on Pay Votes

Reporting to the Board

The Committee shall report to the Board periodically. This report shall include a review of any recommendations or issues that arise with respect to Company compensation and benefits policies, executive compensation, management succession planning and any other matters that the Committee deems appropriate or is requested to be included by the Board.

The Committee shall not be required to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor retained by the Committee, and the authority granted in this charter shall not affect the ability or obligation of the Committee to exercise its own judgment in the fulfilment of its duties hereunder.
