

Chair of Board Position Description

The Chair of the Board of Directors provides leadership to the Board to ensure it functions effectively. The Board believes that it is in the best interests of stockholders for the Board to have the flexibility to determine the most qualified and appropriate individual to serve as Chair of the Board, whether or not that person is an independent director.

The duties and responsibilities assigned to the Chair by the Board of Directors vary depending on whether the Chair is an independent director. If the Chair is not an independent director, the independent directors on the Board will select a Lead Director who will be assigned certain Board leadership responsibilities, which are designed to increase Board effectiveness, maintain Board independence and provide oversight of management. John Jumper, the current Chair of the Board, is the Company's Chief Executive Officer. Key duties and responsibilities of the Chair are listed below:

1. Plan the Board's annual schedule of meetings and agendas, in consultation with the Lead Director and Corporate Secretary and other directors as appropriate
