Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter

A. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The primary function of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) is to assist the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Alkermes plc (the “Company”) in fulfilling its responsibilities by: (i) identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board, and recommending that the Board select the director nominees for election, (ii) periodically reviewing the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics applicable to all directors, officers and employees (a “Code of Business Conduct”) and the Company’s Share Ownership and Holding Guidelines (“Share Ownership and Holding Guidelines”), and (iii) monitoring compliance with the Code of Business Conduct and Share Ownership and Holding Guidelines. The Committee is also responsible for periodically reviewing the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines and recommending any changes thereto.

The Company shall make this Charter available on its website at www.Alkermes.com.

B. COMMITTEE COMPOSITION AND PROCEDURE

The Committee shall be comprised of a minimum of three members of the Board, provided, however, that if fewer than three independent directors sit on the Board, the Committee shall be comprised of such lesser number as the Board from time to time may designate. Each Committee member shall meet any applicable independence requirements promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), any exchange upon which securities of the Company are traded, or any other governmental or regulatory body exercising authority over the Company (each a “Regulatory Body and collectively the ‘Regulatory Bodies’”). Each member of the Committee shall be free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

Members of the Committee shall be elected by the Board following each annual general meeting of shareholders and shall serve until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified or until their earlier resignation or removal. The members of the Committee may be replaced or removed by the Board at any time with or without cause. Resignation or removal of a director from the Board, for whatever reason, shall automatically constitute resignation or removal, as applicable, from this Committee. Vacancies occurring, for whatever reason, may be filled by the Board. Unless the Board elects a Chair, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership.

To the extent permitted by the Regulatory Bodies, the Board of Directors may appoint one member (other than the Chairman of the Committee) who does not meet the independence requirements set forth above and who is not a current officer or employee of the Company or an immediate family member of a current officer or employee if the Board of Directors, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the Committee by the individual is required by the best interests of the Company and its shareholders and the member meets all other requirements. The Board of Directors shall disclose in the next annual meeting proxy statement after such determination (or, if the Company does not file a proxy statement, in its Form 10-K) the nature of the relationship and the reasons for the determination. A member appointed in this capacity may not serve longer than two years.

The Committee shall meet as necessary, but at least twice per year, to enable it to fulfill its goals and responsibilities as set forth herein. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the action of a majority of those present, after determining a quorum, shall be the act of the Committee. The Committee may delegate its authority to subcommittees as it deems appropriate. The Committee may invite members of management or others to attend Committee meetings and provide pertinent information as the Committee may request on the issues being considered.

The Committee shall keep written minutes of its meetings and record such minutes with the books and records of the Company. Minutes of each meeting will be made available to the members of the Board and the Secretary of the Company. In lieu of a meeting, the Committee may act by unanimous written consent.
