Committee Responsibilities and Powers

In furtherance of its purpose, the Committee shall have the following authority and responsibilities:

1. In consultation with senior management of the Company, the Committee shall establish, and periodically review, a general compensation strategy for the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Corporation”). The Committee shall also oversee the implementation of the Corporation’s compensation plans, including pension, welfare, incentive and equity-based plans, to ensure that these plans are consistent with this general compensation strategy. The Committee shall oversee and monitor all of the Corporation’s equity-based plans and such other plans as shall be designated from time to time by the Board.

2. The Committee shall at least annually (a) review and approve the corporate goals and objectives upon which the compensation of the Company's CEO is based, (b) evaluate the CEO's performance in light of these goals and objectives, (c) report its assessment of the CEO's performance to the Board and (d) determine and approve the CEO's compensation level based on such evaluation. In determining and approving the level of CEO compensation, the Committee shall consider all factors it deems relevant, including, without limitation, the Corporation's performance, relative stockholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to chief executive officers at comparable companies, and the awards given to the Company's CEO in past years. The Committee shall review and approve any employment agreements, consulting arrangements, severance and retirement arrangements involving the CEO. In evaluating and determining CEO compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation ("Say on Pay Vote") required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act.
3. With input from the CEO (who shall not participate in deliberations regarding his or her own compensation), the Committee shall approve compensation levels or other terms of employment for each of the other Executives of the Company. In determining and approving the level of other Executive compensation, the Committee shall consider all factors it deems relevant. The Committee shall review and approve any employment agreements, consulting arrangements, severance and retirement arrangements involving such other Executives. In evaluating and determining other Executive compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote.
4. The Committee shall review, discuss with senior management of the Company and approve the Compensation Discussion and Analysis to be included in the Company's proxy statement as may be required by the SEC and applicable listing standards of the NYSE. The Committee shall provide the Compensation Committee Report for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement that complies with the rules and regulations of the SEC.
5. The Committee shall at least annually review and approve the form and amount of compensation (including perquisites and other benefits), and any additional compensation to be paid, for service on the Board and Board committees and for service as a chairperson of a Board committee. In making its determinations, the Committee shall give due consideration to what is customary compensation for directors of comparable companies and any other factors it deems appropriate that are consistent with the policies and principles set forth in this Charter and the Company's Corporate Governance Principles. The Committee shall report all decisions relating to compensation of Board Directors to the Board.
6. The Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Board regarding directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage.

7. The Committee shall review and approve the adoption of, or amendments to, any incentive compensation plans for the Corporation (subject, if necessary, to stockholder approval).
8. Except as provided by Section 9, the Committee shall approve all individual awards of shares to the Company's non-Executives, Executives and Board Directors, including share options and other benefits pursuant to the Company's (and to the extent consistent with the applicable plans, the Company's subsidiaries') equity-based plans. The Committee shall approve the form of all award documents utilized in connection with the Company's (and to the extent consistent with the applicable plans, the Company's subsidiaries') equity-based plans.
9. If permitted by the applicable plans, the Committee may approve a discretionary pool of options or other incentive awards to be made available to the CEO for grant to employees of the Corporation. The size and terms of the discretionary pool of options or other incentive awards shall be determined by the Committee, but shall not exceed 50,000 shares.
10. In consultation with senior management of the Company, the Committee shall oversee regulatory compliance with respect to compensation matters affecting the Corporation.
11. Subject to NYSE rules:
 - (a) The Committee shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to retain or obtain the advice of compensation consultants, independent legal counsel and other advisers. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any compensation consultant, independent legal counsel and other adviser retained by the Committee. Such responsibility shall include the sole authority to retain or terminate, and to determine the terms of engagement and the extent of funding (which shall be provided by the Company) necessary for payment of reasonable compensation to, compensation consultants, independent legal counsel and other advisers retained by the Committee.
 - (b) In selecting a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser providing advice to the Committee, the Committee shall take into consideration all factors relevant to such person's independence from management, including the following:
 - (1) the provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;
 - (2) the amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;
 - (3) the policies and procedures of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;

- (4) any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser with any member of the Committee;
- (5) any stock of the Company owned by the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser; and
- (6) any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser or the person employing the adviser with an executive officer of the Company.

For purposes of this Charter, the above-mentioned independence assessment shall not apply with respect to any compensation consultant, independent legal counsel and other adviser (i) who is an in-house legal counsel, (ii) whose role is limited to the following activities for which no disclosure would be required under Item 407(e)(3)(iii) of the SEC's Regulation S-K: consulting on broad based plans that do not discriminate in scope, terms or operation, in favor of executive officers or directors of the Company, and that are available generally to all salaried employees of the Corporation or (iii) who provides information that either is not customized for a particular entity or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by such consultant, counsel or other advisor and about which such consultant, counsel or other advisor does not provide advice.

This Section 11 requires the Committee to consider the enumerated factors before selecting or receiving advice from compensation consultants, independent legal counsel and other advisers. Once it considers these factors, the Committee may select or receive advice from any compensation consultants, independent legal counsel and other advisers that the Committee prefers, including one that is not independent.

- 12. Every six years, or as frequently as required by the Exchange Act and regulations thereunder, the Committee shall review and discuss how often the Say on Pay Vote should occur: every year, every two years, or every three years, and recommend same to the Board for approval.
- 13. The Committee shall review at least annually the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- 14. The Committee shall conduct and present to the Board an annual self-performance evaluation of the Committee.
- 15. The Committee shall have authority to carry out its duties and responsibilities with respect to the Company's Recoupment Policy, including authority to amend or modify the Recoupment Policy.
