Duties and Responsibilities

A. In carrying out its nominating functions, the duties and responsibilities of the Committee are to:

1. Identify individuals believed to be qualified to become Board members, and to recommend to the Board the nominees to stand for election as directors at the annual meeting of shareholders or, if applicable, at a special meeting of shareholders.

In the case of a vacancy in the office of a director (including a vacancy created by an increase in the size of the Board), the Committee shall recommend to the Board an individual to fill such vacancy.

In nominating candidates, the Committee shall take into consideration such factors as it deems appropriate consistent with the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines. These factors may include judgment, skill, diversity, experience with businesses and other organizations of comparable size, the interplay of the candidate's experience with the experience of other Board members, and the extent to which the candidate would be a desirable addition to the Board and any committees of the Board. The Committee may consider candidates proposed by the Co-Chairmen of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and other senior management. The Committee shall also review the qualifications of, and make recommendations to the Board regarding director nominations submitted to the Company in accordance with the Company's Bylaws or otherwise, and review and evaluate any shareholder proposals relating to the nomination by shareholders of any candidates to the Board or the right of any shareholder to do so.

2. Have the sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates and shall have sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee shall also have authority to obtain, select, retain, terminate and approve the fees and other retention terms of special counsel, any compensation consultant or other experts or consultants, as it deems appropriate.

4. Develop and recommend to the Board standards to be applied in making determinations as to the absence of material relationships between the Company and a director, in order for (a) a director to meet the requirements of "independence" as set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and, as necessary, for (b) a committee member to meet the “independence” requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

5. 6. Undertake any other duties or responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee by the Board from time to time relating to the nomination of Board and committee members.

7. Evaluate whether an incumbent director should be nominated for re-election to the Board upon expiration of such director’s term. The Committee will use the same factors established for new director candidates to make its evaluation and will also take into account the incumbent director’s performance as a Board member.

8. Identify a Board member qualified to serve as the independent Lead Director and to recommend that the Board appoint the identified member as Lead Director.

9. Oversee the evaluation of the Board and management in accordance with the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines.

5. Review and reassess the Company's Code of Legal and Ethical Conduct. The Committee shall consider possible conflicts of interest of Board members and management and make recommendations to prevent, minimize, or eliminate such conflicts of interest (it being understood that if the Board creates a special committee in connection with a "related party" transaction or holds a meeting of the non-interested directors of the Board to approve such "related party" transaction, that the Committee shall not be required to consider possible conflicts of interest regarding such transaction). Consistent with the New York Stock Exchange listing requirements and the Company's Code of Legal and Ethical Conduct, the Board will cause the Company to promptly disclose any waiver of the Company's Code of Legal and Ethical Conduct and any waiver of the conflict of interest policy for a director or executive officer.
