

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain of the statements included in these presentations constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U. S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as “expects,” “believes,” “anticipates,” “includes,” “plans,” “assumes,” “estimates,” “projects,” “intends,” “should,” “will,” “shall,” or variations of such words are generally part of forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are made based on management’s current expectations and beliefs concerning future developments and their potential effects upon Prudential Financial, Inc. and its subsidiaries. There can be no assurance that future developments affecting Prudential Financial, Inc. and its subsidiaries will be those anticipated by management. These forward-looking statements are not a guarantee of future performance and involve risks and uncertainties. Certain important factors that could cause actual results to differ, possibly materially, from expectations or estimates reflected in such forward-looking statements can be found in the “Risk Factors” section included in Prudential Financial, Inc.’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016. Prudential Financial, Inc. does not intend, and is under no obligation, to update any particular forward-looking statement included in these presentations.

These presentations may include references to adjusted operating income and return on equity, which is based on adjusted operating income. Adjusted operating income is a measure of performance that is not calculated based on accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). For additional information about adjusted operating income and the comparable GAAP measure, including a reconciliation between the two, please refer to our Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, which are available on our Web site at www.investor.prudential.com.
