With respect to stock compensation expense, ARRIS records non-cash compensation expense related to grants of options and restricted stock. Depending upon the size, timing and the terms of the grants, this non-cash compensation expense may vary significantly. With respect to amortization of intangibles, the intangibles being amortized relate to our acquisitions. The acquisition costs, restructuring, and other reflect items that, although they or similar items might recur, are of a nature and magnitude that identifying them separately provides investors with a greater ability to project ARRIS' future performance. With respect to the convertible debt non-cash interest, ARRIS records non-cash interest expense related to the 2013 convertible debt. Disclosing the non-cash piece provides investors with the information regarding interest that will not be paid out in cash. In the first quarters of 2011 and 2010, income tax expense adjustments were recorded for state valuation allowances and research and development tax credits.

In assessing operating performance and preparing budgets and forecasts, ARRIS' management considers performance after making these adjustments and believes that providing investors with the same information provides greater transparency and insight into management's
