Third Quarter Results Reflect Long-Term Focus on Execution of Strategic Plan

- Strategic plan has been focused on:
  - Scaling the retail business by continuing to build market-leading brands and providing a superior customer experience
  - Diversifying revenue streams across products, geographies, direct vs. indirect and nature of revenue (e.g., commission-based)
  - Executing on strategic M&A to add complementary products, diversify revenue streams and add scale
  - Rationalizing fixed expenses while investing in new business lines and high growth areas

Scaling the Retail Business

- Over a two-year period, organic and inorganic initiatives have resulted in 27% CAGR in funded accounts
- Client assets have grown at a CAGR of 41% over the two-year period, reflecting the effective execution of organic marketing campaigns along with M&A
- Over the same two-year period, average daily trading volume in the retail business has grown at a CAGR of 46%, reflecting a continued ability to engage the customer and deliver a superior experience, while growing funded accounts and assets

Diversifying Revenue Streams

- Over the past several years, GAIN has added new business lines and diversified its product offering
- New business lines:
  - The institutional business (GTX – launched in 2010 and Sales Traders – acquired in 2013) comprised 22% of total revenue in the third quarter versus 11% and 10% one and two years earlier
  - The futures business (acquired in 2012) has grown to $208 million in client assets (from $98 million at acquisition) and 10% of total revenue versus 9% and 4% of total revenue one and two years earlier
- Product diversification
  - Trading volume from trading in FX products was 73% of total trading volume versus 78% and 92% one and two years earlier
  - Acquisition of Galvan provided retail customers with advisory services, a commission-based business that can be rolled out internationally and expanded across products

Diversifying Revenue Streams

- Growth in GAIN's institutional business has accelerated over the past year – 22% of total revenue in 3Q14 versus 11% in 3Q13
- The institutional business consists of:
  - The GTX business, which provides an innovative ECN for trading by financial institutions and high net worth individuals through the internet and voice brokers
  - The Sales Trader business, which provides high-touch trading services to high net worth individuals and smaller institutional investors
- Growth of the institutional business:
  - GTX has experienced growth in average daily trading volume of 46% CAGR over the past two years
  - Since being acquired in September 2013, the Sales Trader business has experienced growth of 59% in revenue

Executing on M&A Strategy

- Successful execution of M&A strategy has provided:
  - Scale: Pro forma for the City Index acquisition, GAIN Capital's asset base has nearly tripled in the past 2 years and increased by >4x since IPO
  - New business lines: Futures, Sales Traders, retail advisory services
  - Diversification of products: CFDs, spread-bets, futures

(1) Pro forma for acquisition of City Index.

Fixed Operating Expenses

- YTD core fixed operating expenses down 18% and 28% versus YTD 2013 and 2012<sup>(1)</sup>
- Total fixed operating expenses down 11% and 14% compared to YTD 2013 and 2012<sup>(2)</sup>, reflecting cost control while making investments in commission-based institutional, futures and retail advisory businesses
- On target to achieve $35 - $45 million in lower fixed operating expense synergies from the acquisition of GFT

Note: Dollars in millions.

- (1) Core fixed operating expenses calculated as total expenses less referral fees, bad debt, depreciation & amortization, purchased intangible amortization, acquisition costs, restructuring costs, integration costs, a one-time charge taken by GFT prior to the acquisition, direct expenses from new businesses and variable compensation expense (sales commissions and the variable portion of bonus expense).
- (2) Total fixed operating expenses calculated as core operating expenses plus the direct expenses from new businesses.
- (3) Pro-forma for the acquisition of GFT.

Return of Capital

- Return of capital to shareholders
  - $0.05 per share quarterly dividend approved
    - Record date: December 12, 2014
    - Payment date: December 22, 2014
- Share repurchase
  - Program remains in place and will continue to be opportunistic

Closing Remarks

- Strong third quarter results reflect successful execution of strategic plan, buoyed by improved market conditions during period
- Continued focus on growing fundamental operating metrics in retail business
- Institutional business growing rapidly and a major contributor to financial results
- Delivering on expense management with over 20% reduction in core fixed operating expenses year-over-year
- Clear and demonstrated M&A strategy to increase scale and diversify product offering and revenue streams
