Pursuant to an exemption provided by Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (“Rule 144”), the undersigned requests that the restrictive legend be removed from _____ {include total number of common units received upon conversion of common units held in Black Stone Minerals Company, L.P.} common units (the “Common Units”), representing limited partner interests in Black Stone Minerals, L.P. (the “Partnership”), such Common Units being beneficially owned by the undersigned.

In connection with the legend removal, the undersigned hereby represents to you that:

1. The undersigned is not at present, and has not been during the preceding three months, an “affiliate,” as that term is defined in Rule 144, of the Partnership or its predecessor, Black Stone Minerals Company, L.P. (the “Predecessor”).
2. A period of at least six months has elapsed since the later of (a) the date the common units, representing limited partner interests in the Predecessor, (“BSMC Units”) that were exchanged for the Common Units in connection with the initial public offering of the Partnership were originally acquired from the Partnership and fully paid for as set forth in Rule 144(d)<sup>1</sup> or (b) the date such BSMC Units were acquired from an affiliate of the Partnership and fully paid for as set forth in Rule 144(d).

Vinson & Elkins L.L.P., the Partnership and the Partnership’s transfer agent and their agents and representatives may rely on this letter.
