Forward Looking Statements and Regulation G Disclaimer

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements

Some of the statements in this presentation may include, and Endurance may make related oral, forward-looking statements which reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance. Such statements may include forward-looking statements both with respect to us in general and the insurance and reinsurance sectors specifically, both as to underwriting and investment matters. These statements may also include assumptions about our proposed acquisition of Montpelier (including its benefits, results, effects and timing). Statements which include the words “should,” “would,” “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “project,” “anticipate,” “seek,” “will,” and similar statements of a future or forward-looking nature identify forward-looking statements in this presentation for purposes of the U.S. federal securities laws or otherwise. We intend these forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

All forward-looking statements address matters that involve risks and uncertainties. Accordingly, there are or may be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, the effects of competitors’ pricing policies, greater frequency or severity of claims and loss activity, changes in market conditions in the agriculture insurance industry, termination of or changes in the terms of the U.S. multiple peril crop insurance program, a decreased demand for property and casualty insurance or reinsurance, changes in the availability, cost or quality of reinsurance or retrocessional coverage, our inability to renew business previously underwritten or acquired, our inability to maintain our applicable financial strength ratings, our inability to effectively integrate acquired operations, uncertainties in our reserving process, changes to our tax status, changes in insurance regulations, reduced acceptance of our existing or new products and services, a loss of business from and credit risk related to our broker counterparties, assessments for high risk or otherwise uninsured individuals, possible terrorism or the outbreak of war, a loss of key personnel, political conditions, changes in accounting policies, our investment performance, the valuation of our invested assets, a breach of our investment guidelines, the unavailability of capital in the future, developments in the world’s financial and capital markets and our access to such markets, government intervention in the insurance and reinsurance industry, illiquidity in the credit markets, changes in general economic conditions and other factors described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015.

Additionally, the proposed transaction is subject to risks and uncertainties, including: (A) that Endurance and Montpelier may be unable to complete the proposed transaction because, among other reasons, conditions to the closing of the proposed transaction may not be satisfied or waived; (B) uncertainty as to the timing of completion of the proposed transaction; (C) uncertainty as to the actual premium of the Endurance share component of the proposal that will be realized by Montpelier shareholders in connection with the transaction; (D) uncertainty as to the long-term value of Endurance ordinary shares; (E) failure to realize the anticipated benefits and synergies from the proposed transaction, including as a result of failure or delay in integrating Montpelier’s businesses into Endurance; (F) the risk that regulatory or other approvals required for the transaction are not obtained or are obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated; (G) the inability to retain key personnel; (H) any changes in general economic and/or industry specific conditions; and (I) the outcome of any legal proceedings to the extent initiated against Endurance, Montpelier and others following the announcement of the proposed transaction, as well as Endurance and Montpelier management’s response to any of the aforementioned factors.

The foregoing review of important factors should not be construed as exhaustive and should be read in conjunction with the other cautionary statements that are included herein and elsewhere, including the risk factors included in Endurance’s most recent reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q and the risk factors included in Montpelier’s most recent reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q and other documents of Endurance and Montpelier on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). Any forward-looking statements made in this presentation are qualified by these cautionary statements, and there can be no assurance that the actual results or developments anticipated by Endurance will be realized or, even if substantially realized, that they will have the expected consequences to, or effects on, Endurance or its business or operations. Except as required by law, the parties undertake no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

Additional Information about the Proposed Transaction and Where to Find It

The issuance of Endurance ordinary shares to Montpelier shareholders in the merger will be submitted to shareholders of Endurance for their consideration. Regulation G Disclaimer

In this presentation, management has included and discussed certain non-GAAP measures. Management believes that these non-GAAP measures, which may be defined differently by other companies, better explain the proposed transaction in a manner that allows for a more complete understanding. However, these measures should not be viewed as a substitute for those determined in accordance with GAAP. For a complete description of non-GAAP measures and reconciliations, please review the Investor Financial Supplement on our web site at www.endurance.bm.

The combined ratio is the sum of the loss, acquisition expense and general and administrative expense ratios. Endurance presents the combined ratio as a measure that is commonly recognized as a standard of performance by investors, analysts, rating agencies and other users of its financial information. The combined ratio, excluding prior year net loss reserve development, enables investors, analysts, rating agencies and other users of its financial information to more easily analyze Endurance's results of underwriting activities in a manner similar to how management analyzes Endurance's underlying business performance. The combined ratio, excluding prior year net loss reserve development, should not be viewed as a substitute for the combined ratio.

Net premiums written is a non-GAAP internal performance measure used by Endurance in the management of its operations. Net premiums written represents net premiums written and deposit premiums, which are premiums on contracts that are deemed as either transferring only significant timing risk or transferring only significant underwriting risk and thus are required to be accounted for under GAAP as deposits. Endurance believes these amounts are significant to its business and underwriting process and excluding them distorts the analysis of its premium trends. In addition to presenting gross premiums written determined in accordance with GAAP, Endurance believes that net premiums written enables investors, analysts, rating agencies and other users of its financial information to more easily analyze Endurance's results of underwriting activities in a manner similar to how management analyzes Endurance's underlying business performance. Net premiums written should not be viewed as a substitute for gross premiums written determined in accordance with GAAP.

Return on Equity (ROE) is comprised using the average common equity calculated as the arithmetic average of the beginning and ending common equity balances for stated periods. The Company presents various measures of Return on Equity that are commonly recognized as a standard of performance by investors, analysts, rating agencies and other users of its financial information.

Overview of ARMtech

Overview of ARMtech

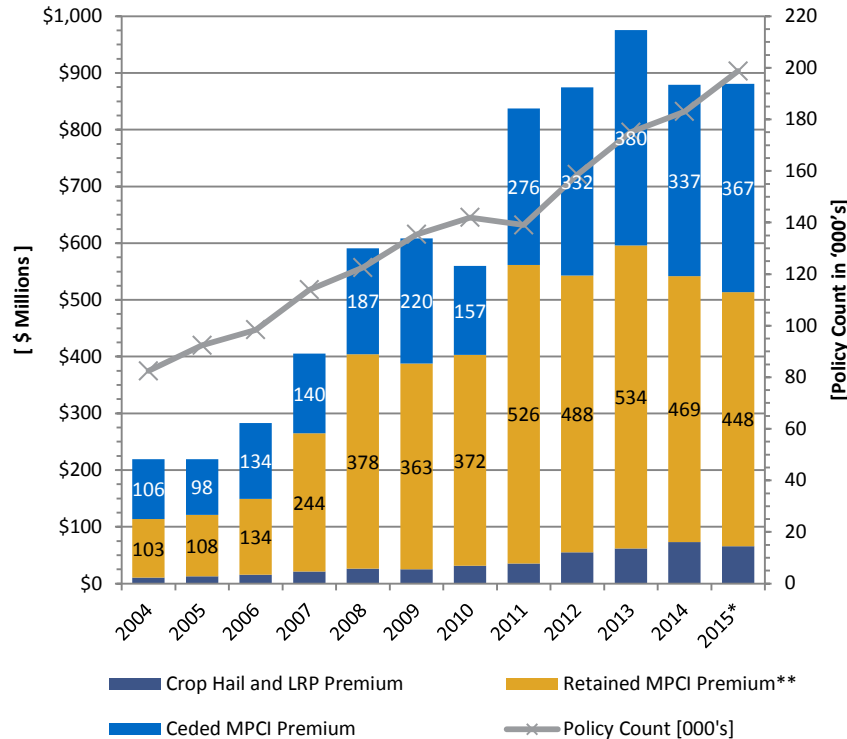

ARMtech has been a strong contributor to Endurance since its acquisition

- Multi Peril Crop Insurance (MPCI) is an insurance product regulated by the USDA that provides farmers with yield or revenue protection
 - Offered by 19 licensed companies
 - Pricing is set by the government and agent compensation limits are also imposed - no pricing cycle exists
 - Reduced downside risks due to Federally sponsored reinsurance and loss sharing
 - Agriculture insurance provides strong return potential, diversification in Endurance's portfolio of (re)insurance risks and is an efficient user of capital
- ARMtech is a leading specialty crop insurance business
 - Approximate 8% market share in MPCI (with estimated 199,000 total agriculture policies in force) and is 5th largest of 19 MPCI industry participants
 - MPCI 2015 crop year* estimated gross written premiums of $815 million
 - Portfolio is well diversified by geography and by crop
- ARMtech was founded by software developers and has maintained a strong focus on providing industry leading service through leveraging technology
- Endurance purchased ARMtech in December 2007 at a purchase price of approximately $125 million
 - ARMtech has grown MPCI policy count by 66.3% since 2007

ARMtech is a Leader in Crop Insurance

ARMtech's focus on technology and service has allowed it to steadily grow its business

Written Premiums and Policy Counts by Crop Year

Using technology and service to expand premiums

- ARMtech has built a market leading specialty crop insurance business through its focus on offering excellent service supported by industry leading technology.
- MPCl policy count has grown 66.3% over the past seven years in a line of business not subject to the property/casualty pricing cycle.
- ARMtech is a leader in using technology to deliver high quality service and to satisfy the intense compliance and documentation standards imposed on the industry by the U.S. Federal Government.
- 2014 and 2015 industry premiums impacted by declines in commodity prices

ARMtech has demonstrated its ability to grow market share and premiums over time through its leading edge technology and superior delivery of service and compliance.

ARMtech is Increasing Market Share and Geographic Diversification

2012 through 2015 were very strong marketing years for ARMtech

MPCI Net Written Premiums
by Crop Year and State Grouping ,

Estimated 2015 Net Written Crop Year Premiums

- 2015 estimated crop year MPCI net written premiums of $448.0 million are 4.5% lower than crop year 2014
 - Commodity prices for spring crops declined 14% on average compared to a year ago
 - Estimated policy count growth of approximately 10.6%
- The portfolio of 2015 crop risk is balanced by crop and geography
- Purchased excess of loss reinsurance to reimburse for losses from 90% to 95% on MPCI portfolio as well as 90% quota share for crop hail products
- The decline in estimated 2015 crop year MPCI net written premiums is principally due to declines in crop commodity prices partially offset by increased policy counts and new products

ARMtech continues to focus on diversifying its business geographically while managing its exposure to Texas through active use of available reinsurance protections.

 Reflects cessions to the Federal Government as part of the MPCI Program and not third party reinsurance purchases

Agriculture Insurance is Not Correlated with the P&C Cycle

FCIC reinsurance lowers volatility

Historic MPCI Crop Year Loss Ratio Results (Pre and Post Federal Reinsurance)

Stable Results in Volatile Times

- While individual states can produce large loss ratios, the U.S. Federal reinsurance program has historically reduced loss ratio volatility.
- ARMtech's business has historically produced stable profits over time after reflecting the reinsurance terms set out in the current standard crop reinsurance agreement
 - Historic average loss ratio post U.S. Federal cessions has been 83.5% (adjusted for the 2011 Federal reinsurance terms)
 - The best year was 2007 with a 69.8% net loss ratio and the worst was 2012 with a 104.0% net MPCI loss ratio
 - ARMtech's current expense run rate after the A&O subsidy is approximately 7% - 8%

While individual states can produce highly varied gross loss ratios on a year to year basis, the U.S. Federal reinsurance program has historically mitigated that volatility and leaves ARMtech with a business which is not correlated to the traditional P&C pricing cycle and has high risk adjusted return potential.

The net loss estimates by zone above represent estimated losses related to our property, catastrophe and other specialty lines of business, based upon our catastrophe models and assumptions regarding the location, size, magnitude, and frequency of the catastrophe events utilized to determine the above estimates. The net loss estimates are presented on an occurrence basis, before income tax and net of reinsurance recoveries and reinstatement premiums, if applicable. Return period refers to the frequency with which the related size of a catastrophic event is expected to occur.

Actual realized catastrophic losses could differ materially from our net loss estimates and our net loss estimates should not be considered as representative of the actual losses that we may incur in connection with any particular catastrophic event. The net loss estimates above rely significantly on computer models created to simulate the effect of catastrophes on insured properties based upon data emanating from past catastrophic events. Since comprehensive data collection regarding insured losses from catastrophe events is a relatively recent development in the insurance industry, the data upon which catastrophe models is based is limited, which has the potential to introduce inaccuracies into estimates of losses from catastrophic events, in particular those that occur infrequently. In addition, catastrophe models are significantly influenced by management's assumptions regarding event characteristics, construction of insured property and the cost and duration of rebuilding after the catastrophe. Lastly, changes in Endurance's underwriting portfolio risk control mechanisms and other factors, either before or after the date of the above net loss estimates, may also cause actual results to vary considerably from the net loss estimates above. For a listing of risks related to Endurance and its future performance, please see "Risk Factors" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2015.

First Quarter 2015 Highlights

Results were driven by strong underwriting margins supported by light catastrophe losses and favorable development

- Book value per common share, adjusted for dividends, expanded 3.0% during first quarter 2015
 - Net income attributable to common shareholders of $100.3 million
 - Stable accident year loss ratios in both segments
 - General and administrative expenses were lower due to expense management and increased ceding commissions
 - Light catastrophe activity
- Gross written premiums of $1.3 billion were 12.4% higher than first quarter 2014
 - Insurance gross written premiums of $736.2 million were 12.9% higher than first quarter 2014
 - Strong growth in our U.S. specialty operations and London were partially offset by lower agriculture premiums. Professional lines grew 41.2% while the casualty and other specialty lines of business expanded 48.8% compared to first quarter 2014. Agriculture gross premiums written declined 2.1% as the impact from reduced commodity prices were partially offset by an increase in policy counts and new products.
 - Reinsurance gross written premiums of $565.2 million increased 11.9% compared to first quarter 2014
 - Significant growth within specialty and professional lines was partially offset by declines within property and casualty lines of business.
- Net written premiums declined 4.2% compared to first quarter 2014 as significant reinsurance/retrocessional protection has been purchased to reduce potential volatility
