

Corporate Profile

Huntington Ingalls Industries is America's largest military shipbuilding company and a provider of professional services to partners in government and industry. For more than a century, HII's Newport News and Ingalls shipbuilding divisions in Virginia and Mississippi have built more ships in more ship classes than any other U.S. naval shipbuilder. HII's Technical Solutions division provides a wide range of professional services through its Fleet Support, Integrated Missions Solutions, Nuclear and Environmental, and Oil and Gas operations. Headquartered in Newport News, Virginia, HII employs more than 39,000 people operating both domestically and internationally. For more information, visit www.huntingtoningalls.com

HII's Ingalls Shipbuilding division has received a $165.5 million contract to provide long-lead-time material and advance construction activities for LPD 30, the first Flight II LPD. HII rendering

The Spin-Off

General Information: The spin-off was a series of transactions by which HII separated from Northrop Grumman Corporation. To complete the spin-off, Northrop Grumman distributed to its stockholders all of the shares of HII common stock. Following the spin-off, HII is a separate company from Northrop Grumman, and Northrop Grumman does not retain any ownership interest in HII.

The Mechanics: The spin-off was completed by way of a pro rata distribution of HII common stock to Northrop Grumman stockholders of record as of 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on March 30, 2011, the spin-off record date. Each Northrop Grumman stockholder received one share of HII common stock for every six shares of Northrop Grumman common stock held by such stockholder on the record date. No fractional shares of HII common stock were issued.

Transaction Date: March 31, 2011

Where to Find More Information: Find information related to the spin-off at: <http://investor.northropgrumman.com/phoenix.zhtml?c=112386&p=irol-HIISpin-off> or contact Huntington Ingalls Investor Relations.
