

TerraForm Power is a diversified owner of clean power generation assets in developed markets. This includes solar and wind assets located in the U.S., Canada and other developed markets.

TerraForm Power owns and operates over 500 hundred wind and solar clean energy power installations representing a total portfolio of 2,607 MW in renewable energy.

With a diversified and high quality, renewable energy portfolio, TerraForm Power is ideally positioned to capitalize on the growth in renewable power generation. We focus on serving the needs of utility, commercial and residential customers while delivering the returns that investors expect.

VICE PRESIDENT--SOLAR OPERATIONS

Location: New York, NY

Reporting to the Senior Vice President Operations, the Vice President-Solar Operations is accountable for the safe execution of all work performed on TERP solar assets and be an active member and advocate of TERP's HSSE managed systems. Overall responsibilities will include project value maximizing, operational metrics and assets optimizing, solar generation data quality control, commercial relationship build-up with vendors, M&A process support and TERP's solar generation and energy storage program advocating.

Responsibilities

- Accountable for the P&L of the solar fleet
- Identify, justify and implement approved solar fleet optimization projects to maximize project long-term value
- Accountable for development of annual operating plans and preparation of monthly and quarterly reports relative to AOP. Provide detail variance explanations and corrective action plans. Work with Finance and Engineering as required to complete same
- Responsible for the day-to-day management of the Solar Asset Management and Field Operations teams to optimize asset short and long-term performance. Provide guidance and leadership to staff and stakeholders
- Focus on operational metrics and optimization tools necessary for TERP and its stakeholders to evaluate real-time performance of all operating assets.
- Accountable for solar generation data quality and responsible to correct anomalies
- Establish and manage preventative and corrective maintenance programs in coordination with TERP engineering and procurement
- Effectively deploy field resources to ensure to PM and CM programs are done to optimize the commercial value of the solar fleet
- Accountable to ensure all operating assets are NERC, ISO, RTO and IA compliant
- Manage commercial relationship with key vendors and lead contract negotiations as needed
- Work with Finance, Business Development and the broader Operations team to advance business development and grow the solar operating business.
- Support TERP's M&A process in evaluating potential targets and provide technical input on solar and storage assets
- Communicate and advocate TERP's solar generation and energy storage programs in support of brown and green field redevelopments
- Perform additional tasks as directed by the senior TERP management team
- Travel as required

Requirements

- Strong interpersonal and coaching skills, a good team player and collaborator.
- Personal accountability and integrity
- Ability to make informed decisions in a quick and nimble fashion
- Comfortable with a work environment that is fast paced and changes quickly
- Ability to work within a team with a positive attitude
- Enthusiastic about the renewable energy industry
- Comprehensive Knowledge and experience working with Finance, Asset Management, M&A and O&M in the power generation industry.

Qualifications

- 4-year college degree in Engineering or related technical field. MBA viewed as desirable
- Minimum 8 years of experience in solar energy operations and storage. Traditional generation experience considered
- Deep knowledge of technical and commercial aspects of operating and performance of solar and energy storage projects
- Contract negotiation, execution and management experience
- Able and willing to work irregular hours. Willing to travel as required.

All interested candidates should apply in confidence to Human Resources at: recruiting@terraform.com. PLEASE CLEARLY INDICATE “VP SOLAR OPERATION” IN THE EMAIL SUBJECT LINE.

Terraform Power would like to thank all applicants but only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

In addition to providing a climate for professional growth, TerraForm offers competitive salary, a comprehensive benefits program and a company matched 401(k) savings plan. TerraForm is an equal employment/affirmative action employer. If you need accommodation for any part of the employment process because of a medical condition or disability, please send an e-mail to recruiting@terraform.com.