JCDecaux renews advertising contract for the two Washington DC Airports

Paris, September 9, 2010 - JCDecaux SA, the number one outdoor advertising company in Europe and Asia Pacific and the number two worldwide announced today that following a competitive tender process, it has been awarded a new 9-year contract, including extension options, for the advertising concession at Washington Reagan National and Washington Dulles International airports.

With more than 40 million annual passengers, Reagan National and Dulles International airports are the gateways to the American Capital, covering both domestic and international passengers. JCDecaux has operated the advertising concessions at the two airports since 1996. The new contract also includes marketing and sponsorship development opportunities.

Jean-Francois Decaux, co-Chief Executive Officer of JCDecaux, said: "Our selection for this new contract results from JCDecaux' strong track record in terms of advertising revenue per passenger, our creativity, and our success with the deployment of state-of-the-art digital products throughout our network of 20 airports in the United States, which also includes the three New York airports and Los Angeles International airport"

Key Figures for the Group:

- 2009 revenues: €1,918.8 m, H1 2010 revenues: €1,110.6m
