

LIVE NATION EXTENDS ITS POPULAR NO SERVICE FEE WEDNESDAYS AGAIN BY DROPPING THE SERVICE FEE ON ALL 4-PACKS AND 6-PACKS THIS WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, ONLY AT LIVENATION.COM

LOS ANGELES, CA June 29, 2009 – Live Nation announced today that its “No Service Fee Wednesday” program for July 1 will continue to give music fans deep discounts on 4-Pack ticket packages and will expand the offer to include 6-Pack tickets as well. These programs already save fans money with lower prices for purchasing a 4 or 6 ticket bundle. With the service fee eliminated on 4-Packs this Wednesday, music fans will enjoy a 40% average discount when compared to the regular price of individual tickets. Fans who buy 6-Packs will save even more – an average 54% over the purchase of individual tickets.

The new offer, which is valid for all 4-Packs and 6-Packs at Live Nation ticketed amphitheaters, runs for 24 hours beginning on Wednesday, July 1 at 12:01 a.m. local time, only at LiveNation.com. Parking, municipal taxes and certain venue fees may still apply.

The service fee free 4-Packs and 6-Packs are available only at Live Nation ticketed amphitheaters in the U.S. and Canada for concerts including but not limited to:

- 311
- Aerosmith
- The Allman Brothers Band
- Blazed & Confused Tour / Slightly Stoopid – Snoop Dogg
