Safe Harbor

Certain statements contained herein may constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “target,” “estimate,” “continue,” “positions,” “prospects” or “potential,” by future conditional verbs such as “will,” “would,” “should,” “could” or “may,” or by variations of such words or by similar expressions. These “forward-looking statements” are not historical facts and are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about KCG's industry, management's beliefs and certain assumptions made by management, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and beyond our control. Any forward-looking statement contained herein speaks only as of the date on which it is made. Accordingly, readers are cautioned that any such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict including, without limitation, risks associated with: (i) the strategic business combination (the “Mergers”) of Knight Capital Group, Inc. (“Knight”) and GETCO Holding Company, LLC (“GETCO”); (ii) difficulties and delays in fully realizing cost savings and other benefits of the Mergers and the inability to manage trading strategy performance and sustain revenue and earnings growth; (iii) the sale of KCG Hotspot; (iv) changes in market structure, legislative, regulatory or financial reporting rules, including the increased focus by Congress, federal and state regulators, the SRO's and the media on market structure issues, and in particular, the scrutiny of high frequency trading, alternative trading systems, market fragmentation, colocation, access to market data feeds, and remuneration arrangements such as payment for order flow and exchange fee structures; (v) past or future changes to KCG's organizational structure and management; (vi) KCG's ability to develop competitive new products and services in a timely manner and the acceptance of such products and services by KCG's customers and potential customers; (vii) KCG's ability to keep up with technological changes; (viii) KCG's ability to effectively identify and manage market risk, operational and technology risk (such as the events that affected Knight on August 1, 2012), legal risk, liquidity risk, reputational risk, counterparty and credit risk, international risk, regulatory risk, and compliance risk; (ix) the cost and other effects of material contingencies, including litigation contingencies, and any adverse judicial, administrative or arbitral rulings or proceedings; (x) the effects of increased competition and KCG's ability to maintain and expand market share; and (xi) the announced plan to relocate KCG's global headquarters from Jersey City, NJ to New York, NY. The list above is not exhaustive. Because forward looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, the actual results and performance of KCG may materially differ from the results expressed or implied by such statements. Given these uncertainties, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. Unless otherwise required by law, KCG also disclaims any obligation to update its view of any such risks or uncertainties or to announce publicly the result of any revisions to the forward-looking statements made herein. Readers should carefully review the risks and uncertainties disclosed in KCG's reports with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), including those detailed under “Certain Factors Affecting Results of Operations” in the MD&A and in “Risk Factors” in Part I, Item 1A of KCG 's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, and in other reports or documents KCG files with, or furnishes to, the SEC from time to time. This information should be read in conjunction with KCG's Consolidated Financial Statements and the Notes thereto contained in the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter-ended June 30, 2015, and in other reports or documents KCG files with, or furnishes to, the SEC from time to time.

Investment Rationale

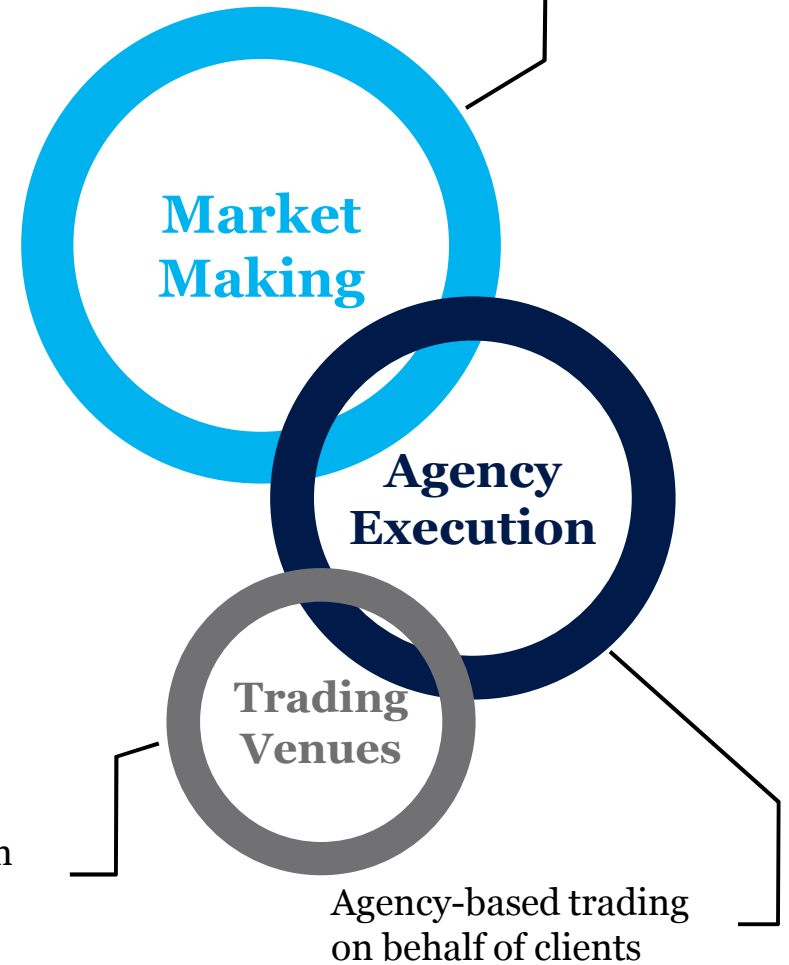

1. A better model for the emerging competitive landscape – pure-play, execution-only, scalable, non-bank, non-SIFI
2. A developer of advanced technologies driving the shift in trading from analog to digital across asset classes
3. Prospects for multiyear organic growth direct from core capabilities
4. Strong cash flow generation and demonstrated record of capital return
5. Long-term growth opportunities from the continuing after effects of new regulations instituted in response to the global financial crisis of 2008

The KCG Model

KCG helps retail and institutional investors efficiently buy and sell liquid financial assets around the world.

- A leading, independent global securities firm dedicated exclusively to trading
- Developer of advanced technologies applicable to market making, agency execution and trading venues in multiple asset classes
- Delivers consistent, high-quality trade executions that drive trading performance for retail and institutional investors
- Contributes to better price discovery, deeper liquidity, tighter spreads and lower costs for all market participants

Direct-to-client and non-client, exchange-based market making

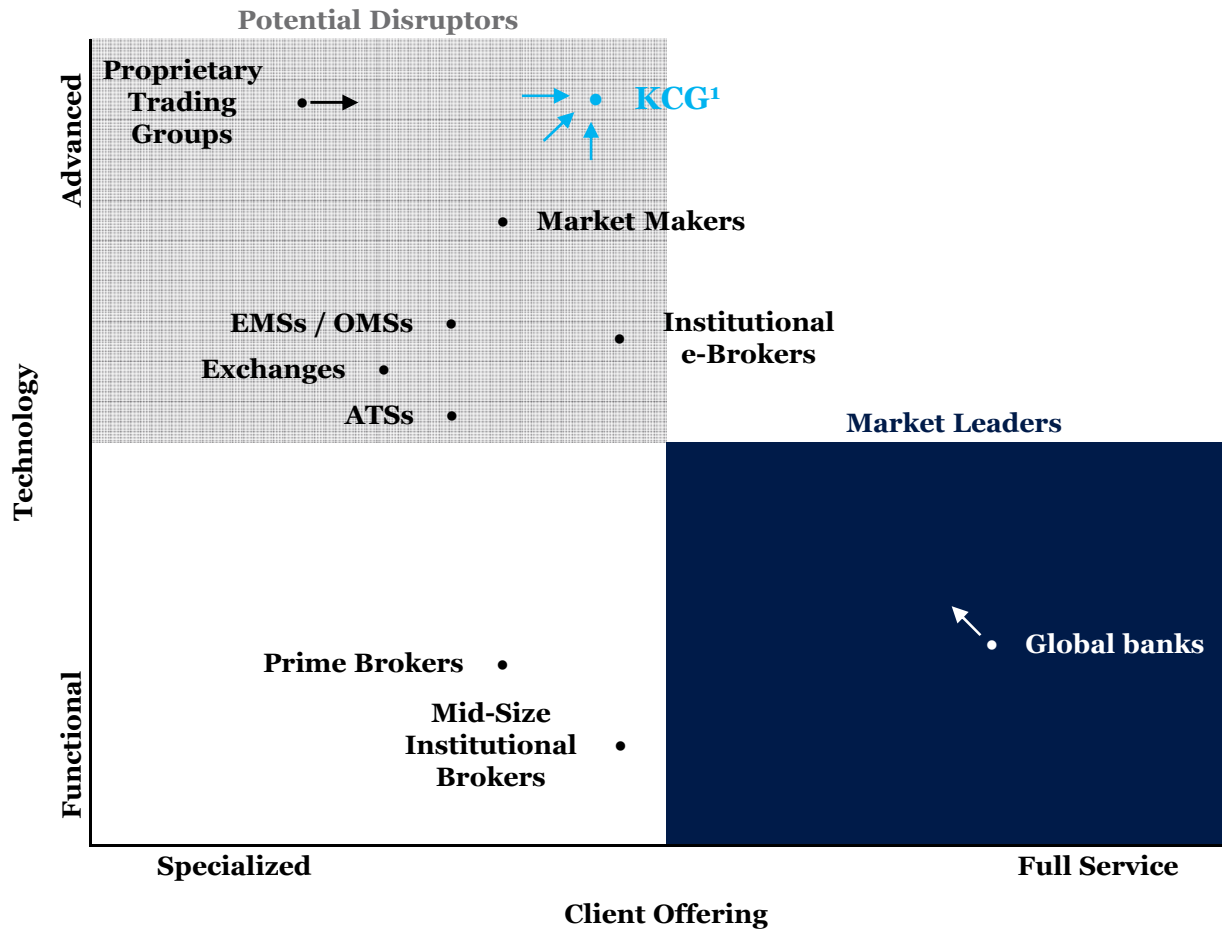

Agency-based trading between principals to transactions

Agency-based trading on behalf of clients

The Competitive Landscape

Getting to the Right Strategic Spot in U.S. Trade Execution

3Q15 Intra-Quarter Updates

- Strong market conditions in U.S. equities
 - Consolidated U.S. equity volume and realized volatility for the S&P 500 quarter to date are elevated in comparison to prior reporting periods
 - Retail trading activity QTD is tracking +12% compared to 2Q15 and +21% to 3Q14
- Increased activity in global equities QTD
 - Year over year, European equity notional volume up 17% while Asian equity share volume is up 10%

- Mixed market conditions in fixed income, currencies and commodities QTD
 - Year over year, U.S. Treasuries are essentially flat while currencies are slightly lower
- As previously disclosed, during 3Q15, KCG will record non-recurring real-estate charges of $25 to $30 million as well as additional Depreciation and amortization of $4.5 to $5 million related to the corporate relocation

KCG consolidated revenues for the trailing four quarters²

Market Making

Primary drivers of revenues from U.S. equities

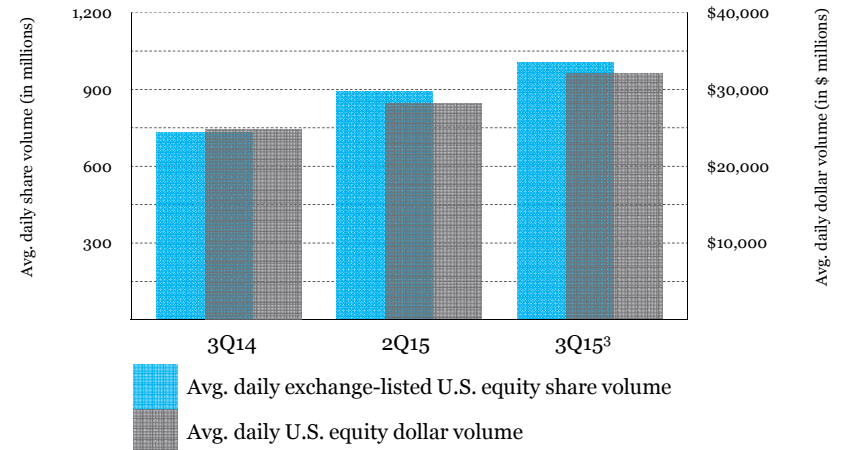

Non-client, exchange-based market making

- A provider of bilateral liquidity – best prices for buy and sell orders – on public and private markets
- Active globally in select asset classes that are largely electronic, fairly liquid and centrally cleared
- Anticipated future growth from the modernization of markets for global equities, fixed income, currencies and commodities

Direct-to-client market making

- A leading direct-to-client market maker serving retail brokers and banks globally in an expanding number of asset classes
- A scale operation with competition based on market coverage, execution quality, reliability and payment for order flow
- Currently offer liquidity in U.S. equities, listed U.S. options, European equities, U.S. fixed income and currencies

³ 3Q15 KCG U.S. equity market making trade volumes represent quarter-to-date activity through August 2015

Agency Execution and Trading Venues

KCG algorithmic trading and order routing
U.S. equity share volume

Agency execution

- A leading execution-only broker serving mutual funds, hedge funds and pension funds in global equities
- Offer algorithmic trading as well as sales trading for more complex trades
- Anticipated future growth from increasing penetration of KCG algorithms among the leading asset managers

Trading venues

- A developer and operator of marketplaces in strategic asset classes
- Anticipated future growth from the modernization of markets – in particular fixed income – that remain manual, non-transparent and illiquid
- A 16.7% stake in global exchange BATS²

¹¹ Represents cash and other highly liquid financial instruments in excess of the targeted liquidity pool and included within Cash and cash equivalents on the June 30, 2015 balance sheet

Consolidated Expenses

- Compensation and benefits declined $39.8 million due to decreased headcount and reduced discretionary bonus accruals
- Communications and data processing decreased $7.1 million due to reduced market data and terminal fees, connectivity costs and maintenance expenses
- Among transaction-based expenses not included in the chart, Execution and clearance fees declined $17.7 million – amid an increase in KCG trade volumes – due to better tiered exchange pricing and reduced regulatory transaction fees
- Among future corporate relocation and other real estate-related expenses
 - Depreciation and amortization will increase approximately $4.5 to $5 million per quarter from 3Q15 through 4Q16
 - Occupancy and equipment rentals will increase approximately $1.5 million per quarter from 4Q15 through 4Q16
