

Financial Tear Sheet

Corporate Profile

Cheniere Energy, Inc. is a Houston-based energy company primarily engaged in LNG-related businesses, and owns and operate the Sabine Pass LNG terminal in Louisiana. Cheniere is pursuing related business opportunities both upstream and downstream the Sabine Pass LNG terminal. Through its subsidiary, Cheniere Energy Partners, L.P., Cheniere is developing a liquefaction project adjacent to the Sabine Pass LNG terminal for up to six LNG trains with aggregate capacity of approximately 27 mtpa. Construction has begun on LNG Trains 1 through 5 at the Sabine Pass LNG terminal. Cheniere is also developing an LNG terminal near Corpus Christi, Texas for up to three LNG trains with an aggregate capacity of 15 mtpa. Construction began on LNG Trains 1 and 2 in March 2015. We believe LNG exports from the Corpus Christi LNG terminal could commence as early as 2018.
