

Corporate Profile

Warren Resources, Inc. is an independent energy company that has relocated its corporate headquarters to Lincoln Centre. The company is engaged in the acquisition, exploration, development, and production of domestic onshore crude oil and gas reserves. The company's acreage, reserves and production include crude oil from a Long Beach, California water flood, natural gas from the Marcellus Shale in northwest Pennsylvania, and natural gas from the Green River Basin in southwest Wyoming. James A. Watt is the President and CEO, Frank Smith is the Chief Financial Officer, and the company employs 68 people.