Huntsman Clariant Deal Continues to Move Forward: Focused “Second Request” for Additional Information Received from Federal Trade Commission

THE WOODLANDS, Texas – Huntsman Corporation (NYSE: HUN) is pleased to announce progress towards satisfying the regulatory approval condition to closing its merger of equals with Clariant AG (SIX: CLN). The United States Federal Trade Commission, which reviews the antitrust implications of certain business combinations, delivered a second request for information to Huntsman yesterday relating to just two products - sodium isethionate, used in personal care products like soap and shampoos, and a polyetheramine product used in certain construction and additive/paint and ink applications. Together, these products accounted for less than $20 million of Huntsman’s total revenues in the United States in 2016, and Huntsman is confident that it will be able to satisfy any FTC concerns in advance of the targeted year-end closing date for the merger.
